58. Application by Police for warrant to intercept private communications -

(1) An application may be made in accordance with this section to a Judge for a warrant for any member of the Police to intercept a private communication by means of a listening device in any case where there are reasonable grounds for believing that -

- (a) a person has committed, or is committing, or is about to commit, a drug dealing offence; and
- (b) it is unlikely that the police investigation of the case could be brought to a successful conclusion without the grant of such a warrant.

(2) Every application under subsection (1) shall be made by a commissioned officer of Police, in writing, and on oath and shall set out the following particulars -

- (a) the facts relied upon to show that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person has committed, or is committing, or is about to commit, a drug dealing offence; and
- (b) a description of the manner in which it is proposed to intercept private communications; and
- (c) the name and address, if known, of the suspect whose private communications there are reasonable grounds for believing will assist the Police investigation of the case, or, if the name and address of the suspect are not known, a general description of the premises or private communications, being premises or a place believed to be used for any purpose by any person involved in the drug dealing offence, and;
- (d) the period for which a warrant is requested; and

  - (i) the other investigative procedures and techniques that have been tried but have failed to facilitate the successful conclusion of the Police investigation of the case, and the reasons why they have failed in that respect; or
  - (ii) the reasons why it appears that other investigative procedures and techniques are unlikely to facilitate the successful conclusion of the Police investigation of the case, or are likely to be too dangerous to adopt in the particular case; or
  - (iii) the reasons why it is considered that the case is so urgent that it would be impractical to carry out the Police investigation using only investigative procedures and techniques other than the interception of private communications.

59. Matters on which Judge must be satisfied in respect of applications - On an application made to him in accordance with section 58, the Judge may grant an interception warrant if he is satisfied that it would be in the best interests of the administration of justice to do so, and that -

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person has committed, or is committing, or is about to commit a drug dealing offence; and
- (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that evidence relevant to the investigation of the offence will be obtained through the use of a listening device to intercept private communications; and
- (c) whichever of the following is applicable:
  - (i) other investigative procedures and techniques have been tried but have failed to facilitate the successful conclusion of the Police investigation of the case; or
  - (ii) other investigative procedures and techniques are unlikely to facilitate the successful conclusion of the Police investigation of the case, or are likely to be too dangerous to adopt in the particular case; or
  - (iii) the case is so urgent that it would be impractical to carry out the Police investigation using any investigative procedures and techniques other than the interception of private communications; and
- (d) the private communications to be intercepted are not likely to be privileged in proceedings in a Court of law by virtue of the Evidence Act 1968 or of any rule of law that confers privilege on communications of a professional character between a barrister or solicitor and his client.

60. Contents and terms of warrant - (1) Every interception warrant shall be issued in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, and shall -

- (a) state the offence in respect of which the warrant is granted; and
- (b) state the name and address of the suspect, if known, whose private communications may be intercepted, or, where his name and address are not known, the premises or place in respect of which private communication may be intercepted, being premises or a place believed to be used for any purpose by any person involved in the drug dealing offence; and
- (c) specify the Commissioned Officer of Police who (with any other member of the Police or proper officer of Customs for the time being assisting him) may intercept the private communications; and
- (d) where the Judge considers it necessary, contain express authority to enter (with force, where necessary) any aircraft, ship, hovercraft, carriage, vehicle, or premises, for the purpose of placing, servicing, or retrieving a listening device; and

- (e) contain such additional terms and conditions as the Judge considers advisable in the public interest.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), where it is proposed to place a listening device in the residential or business premises of a person who is a barrister or solicitor, or clergy man, or a registered medical practitioner, the Judge shall prescribe such conditions (if any) as he considers desirable to avoid so far as practicable the interception of communications of a professional character to which the barrister or solicitor or clergyman or registered medical practitioner is a party.
- (3) Every interception warrant shall be valid for such period, not exceeding 30 days, as the Judge shall specify in the warrant.

61. Effect of warrant - Every interception warrant shall have effect, according to its terms, to authorise the interception of private communications by means of a listening device.

62. Renewal of warrants - (1) A Judge may from time to time grant a renewal of an interception warrant upon application made to him at any time before the warrant (or any current renewal thereof) has expired.

(2) Every application for the renewal of an interception warrant shall be made in the manner provided by section 58, and shall give -

- (a) the reason and period for which the renewal is required; and
- (b) full particulars, together with times and dates, of any interceptions made or attempted under the warrant, and an indication of the nature of the information that has been obtained by every such interception.

(3) Every such application shall be supported by such other information as the Judge may require.

(4) A renewal of an interception warrant may be granted under this section if the judge is satisfied that the circumstances described in section 59 still remain.

(5) Every renewal of an interception warrant shall be valid for such period, not exceeding 30 days, as the Judge shall specify in the renewal.

(6) A renewal of an interception warrant may be granted upon an application made within the time prescribed by subsection (1) notwithstanding that the warrant (or any renewal thereof) has expired before the application is determined.

(7) Nothing in this section shall prevent a Judge from granting a second or subsequent renewal of an interception warrant upon an application duly made to him.

63. Emergency permits - (1) In any case where a Judge is satisfied that circumstances exist that would justify the grant of an interception warrant under section 59, but the urgency of the situation requires that the interception should begin before a warrant could with all practicable diligence be obtained, the Judge may, orally or in writing, grant an emergency permit for the interception of private communications in respect of particular premises or a particular place and in a particular manner.

(2) Any application for an emergency permit may be made orally, but otherwise every such application shall comply with the requirements of section 58.

(3) Where the Judge grants the application for an emergency permit, he shall forthwith make a note in writing of the particulars of the application. The note shall be filed in the High Court Registry nearest to where the application is made, and shall, for the purposes of section 64(1), be deemed to be a document relating to the application for the permit. The Judge shall also make a note of the terms of the permit.

(4) The provisions of section 60, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply to emergency permits in the same manner as they apply to interception warrants.

(5) Every emergency permit shall remain valid for 48 hours from the time when it is given, and shall then expire.

(6) On filing the report required by section 72, the member of the Police who applied for the emergency permit (or, if he is not the member filing the report, then that member) may apply to the Judge who granted the permit (or, if he is not the Judge receiving the report, then that Judge) for a certificate confirming the permit pursuant to subsection (8).

(7) Where the Police, within the period of 48 hours during which the emergency permit is valid, apply for an interception warrant in place of the permit, the member of the Police applying for the warrant may also apply for a certificate confirming the permit pursuant to subsection (8).

(8) The Judge to whom an application is made pursuant to subsection (6) or (7) shall issue a certificate confirming the permit if he is satisfied, having regard to the requirements of section 59, that if the original application for the emergency permit had been an application for an interception warrant, he would have granted a warrant.

(9) For the purposes of section 69, an interception of a private communication pursuant to an emergency permit shall be deemed to have been made unlawfully unless the Judge to whom an application is made in accordance with subsection (6) or (7) issues a certificate confirming the permit pursuant to subsection (8).

64. Security of applications - (1) As soon as an application for an interception warrant or for a renewal of an interception warrant or for an emergency permit or for a certificate confirming an emergency permit has been determined by the Judge, the Registrar shall place all documents relating to the application (except the warrant or renewal or permit or certificate itself) in a packet, seal the packet, and thereafter keep it in safe custody, subject to the succeeding provisions of this section.

(2) Notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law or rules of Court entitling any party to any proceedings to demand the introduction of any documents, no such party shall be entitled to demand the production of any documents held in safe custody pursuant to subsection (1), except in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this section.

(3) Every such party who requires the production of any document held in safe custody pursuant to subsection (1) shall, except in a case to which subsection (9) and (10) applies, apply in writing to the Registrar, who shall forthwith notify the Commissioner of Police.

(5) Where the Commissioner of Police does not give written notice to the Registrar as aforesaid, the Registrar shall produce the documents to the party applying for production.

(6) Where a matter is referred to a Judge pursuant to subsection (4), both the person requesting production of the documents and the Commissioner of Police opposing production shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

(7) If the Judge is satisfied that the information in any document the production of which is in dispute identifies or is likely to lead to the identification of a person who gave information to the Police, or of any member of the Police whose identity was concealed for the purpose of any relevant investigation and has not been subsequently revealed, he may, if he believes it in the public interest to do so, order that the whole or any specified part of the document be not produced.

(8) Subject to the provisions of subsection (7), the Judge shall order the production of the documents to the party requesting it.

(9) Where a request for the production of any document kept in safe custody pursuant to subsection (1) is made in the course of any proceedings presided over by a Judge and the request is opposed, the Judge shall adjudicate upon the matter as if it had been referred to him pursuant to subsection (4).

(10) Where such a request is made in the course of any other proceedings, the presiding judicial officer shall forthwith refer the matter to a Judge for adjudication as aforesaid.

(11) Notwithstanding anything in this section, every Judge who is presiding over any proceedings in which the issue of an interception warrant or emergency permit is in issue shall be entitled to inspect any relevant document held under subsection (1).

65. Destruction of irrelevant records made by use of listening device - (1) Every person who intercepts a private communication in pursuance of an interception warrant or any emergency permit shall, as soon as practicable after it has been made, destroy any record, whether written or otherwise, of the information obtained by that interception if none of the information directly or indirectly relates to the commission of the drug dealing offence.

(2) Every person who fails to comply with subsection (1) of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

66. Destruction of relevant records made by use of listening device - (1) The Commissioner of Police shall ensure that every record, whether written or otherwise, of the information obtained by the Police from the interception of a private communication in pursuance of an interception warrant or an emergency permit, being information that relates wholly or partly and directly or indirectly to the commission of a drug dealing offence, is destroyed as soon as it appears that no proceedings, or no further proceedings, will be taken in which the information would be likely to be required to be produced in evidence.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall apply to -

(a) any record of any information adduced in proceedings in any Court, or (in any case where the defendant pleads guilty) of any record of any information that, in the opinion of the Judge to whom the report referred to in subsection (3) is made, would have been adduced had the matter come to trial;

- (b) any record of any information contained in any transcript or written statement given to any person in accordance with section 68(a).

(3) Every report made to a Judge in accordance with section 71 shall state whether or not subsection (1) has yet been complied with, and, if it has not, the Judge shall give such directions relating to the eventual destruction of the record as he thinks necessary to ensure compliance with that subsection, including a requirement that he be advised when the record has been destroyed.

67. Prohibition on disclosure of private communications lawfully intercepted

(1) No person who -

- (a) intercepts or assists in the interception of a private communication in pursuance of an interception warrant or emergency permit; or
- (b) acquires knowledge of a private communication as a direct or indirect result of that interception - shall knowingly disclose the substance, meaning, or purport of that communication, or any part of that communication, otherwise than in the performance of his duty.

(2) Every person who acts in contravention of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

68. Notice to be given of intention to produce evidence of private communication - Particulars of a private communication intercepted pursuant to an interception warrant or an emergency permit shall not be received in evidence by any Court against any person unless the party intending to adduce it has given to that person reasonable notice of his intention to do so, together with -

- (a) a transcript of the private communication where he intends to adduce it in the form of a recording, or a written statement setting forth the full particulars of the private communication where he intends to adduce oral evidence of it; and

69. Inadmissibility of evidence of private communications unlawfully intercepted - (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), where a private communication intercepted by means of a listening device otherwise than in pursuance of an interception warrant or emergency permit issued under this Act or of any authority conferred by or under any other enactments has come to the knowledge of a person as a direct or indirect result of that interception or its disclosure, no evidence so required of that communication, or of its substance, meaning, or purport, and no other evidence obtained as a direct or indirect result of the interception or disclosure of that communication, shall be given against any person, except in proceedings relating to the unlawful interception of a private communication by means of a listening device or the unlawful disclosure of a private communication unlawfully intercepted in that manner.

(2) Where in any criminal proceedings for a drug dealing offence, the Court is of the opinion that any evidence that is inadmissible by virtue of subsection (1)

- (a) is relevant; and

- (b) is inadmissible by virtue of that subsection merely because of a defect of form or an irregularity in procedure, not being a substantive defect or irregularity, in the application for or the granting of the interception warrant or emergency permit, or in the manner in which the evidence was obtained, and that the defect in form or irregularity in procedure was not the result of bad faith, the Court may admit that evidence.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not render inadmissible against any party to a private communication evidence of that communication that has, in the manner referred to in that subsection, come to the knowledge of the person called to give evidence, if all the parties to the communication consent to that person giving the evidence.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not render inadmissible evidence of a private communication by any person who intercepted that communication by means of a listening device with the prior consent of any party to the communication.

70. Privileged evidence - Where evidence obtained by the interception of a private communication would, but for the interception, have been privileged by virtue of

- (a) the Evidence Act 1968; or
 (b) any rule of law that confers privilege on communications of a professional character between a barrister or solicitor and his client, such evidence shall remain privileged and shall not be given in any Court, except with the consent of the person entitled to waive that privilege.

71. Report to be made to Judge on use of warrant or permit - (1) As soon as practicable after an interception warrant or an emergency permit has expired, the member of the Police who applied for it, or (if he is unable to act) another commissioned officer of Police, shall make a written report to the Judge who granted the warrant or permit, or (if he is unable to act) to another Judge, on the manner in which the power conferred by the warrant or permit has been exercised and the results obtained by the exercise of that power.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 64, the Judge who receives a report under subsection (1) shall be entitled to inspect any relevant document held under section 64(1).

(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), every report made for the purposes of that subsection shall contain the following information -

 (c) whether any relevant evidence was obtained by means of the listening device;
 (d) whether any relevant evidence has been, or is intended to be, used in any criminal proceedings;
 (e) whether any records of a private communication intercepted pursuant to the warrant or permit have been destroyed in accordance with section 65 or 66, and, if not, why they have not been destroyed;
 (f) whether the listening device has been retrieved, and, if not, why it has not been retrieved.

(4) On receiving a report under this section, the Judge may require such further information relating to the matter as he thinks fit, and (in addition to any directions he gives for the purposes of section 66(3)) he may give such directions as he thinks desirable, whether relating to the retrieval of the listening device, or otherwise.

72. Commissioner of Police to give information to Parliament - The Commissioner of Police shall include in every annual report prepared by him for the purposes of section 50 of the Police Act 1981 the following information in respect of the period under review -

- (a) a condition that the defendant shall report to the Police at such time or times and at such place or places as the Judge orders;
- (b) any other condition that appears to the Judge to be likely to result in the defendant attending personally at the time and place, or times and places, to which the hearing of the charge against the defendant or the passing of sentence on the defendant or the hearing of an appeal by or against the defendant is or may be from time to time adjourned;
- (c) any other condition that appears to the Judge to be necessary or desirable in the interests of justice or for the prevention of crime.

(2) Where a Judge imposes any condition of bail pursuant to subsection (1)(b) or (c), he shall not require any surety to be found in respect of that condition.

75. Arrest of defendant who has absconded or is about to abscond while on bail - (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 90 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1980-81, where a defendant has been released on bail pursuant to section 73, any member of the Police may arrest that person without warrant if -

- (a) the member of the Police believes, on reasonable grounds, that the defendant has absconded or is about to abscond for the purpose of evading justice; or
- (b) the Police have been notified in writing by any surety for the defendant that the surety believes that the defendant has absconded or is about to abscond for the purpose of evading justice, and the member of the Police is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for that belief.

(2) Every defendant who has been arrested pursuant to subsection (1) shall be brought before a Judge as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 48 hours.

(3) Where any defendant is brought before a Judge pursuant to subsection (2), the Judge shall, on being satisfied that the defendant had absconded or was about to abscond, remand the defendant in custody.

76. Arrest of defendant who fails to comply with any conditions of bail - (1) Where a defendant has been released on bail pursuant to section 73, and any condition was imposed by the Judge on the grant of bail pursuant to section 74, any member of the Police may arrest that person without warrant if -

- (a) the member of the Police believes, on reasonable grounds, that the defendant has broken, is breaking, or is about to break, any such condition of bail; or
- (b) the Police have been notified in writing by any surety for the defendant that the surety believes that the defendant has broken, is breaking, or is about to break, any such condition of bail, and the member of the Police is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for that belief.

(2) Every defendant who has been arrested pursuant to subsection (1) shall be brought before a Judge as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 48 hours.

(3) Where a defendant is brought before a Judge pursuant to subsection (2), the Judge may -

- (a) on being satisfied that the defendant has broken, was breaking, or was about to break any condition of bail, remand the defendant in custody; or
- (b) release the defendant, in which case the defendant shall continue to be on bail and his bail bond shall continue in force in all respects as if he had not been arrested pursuant to this section.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3)(b), in any case where the defendant was arrested pursuant to subsection (1)(b), the Judge shall release the defendant pursuant to the said subsection (3)(b) only if the surety consents in writing to the release.

(5) Where the surety does not consent in writing to the release, the Judge shall release the defendant pursuant to subsection (3)(b) only on a fresh bail bond.

77. Appeals against decisions of Judge relating to bail - (1) Every person who applies for but is refused bail under section 73 may appeal to the Court of Appeal against that refusal.

(2) Every person who is granted bail pursuant to section 73 subject to any condition imposed under section 74 may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the imposition of that condition.

(3) Where any person is granted bail pursuant to section 73, the Crown may appeal to the Court of Appeal against that grant, or against any failure or refusal to impose any condition that could have been imposed under section 74.

(4) Every person wishing to appeal under this section against any decision of a Judge made pursuant to section 73 or 74 shall file notice of his intention to appeal with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal within 10 days after the date of the decision to be appealed against.

(5) Every appeal under this section that is not heard before the date on which the decision appealed against ceases to be of any effect shall lapse on that date, and shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court of Appeal for want of prosecution.

(6) No decision of a Judge appealed against under this section shall be suspended merely because that notice of appeal has been given.

78. Court of Appeal to hear and determine Appeal - (1) The Court of Appeal shall hear and determine every appeal under this section, and may confirm the decision appealed against or, if it is satisfied that the Judge in making that decision exercised his discretion wrongly, it may reverse or modify that decision.

(2) Where, on any appeal under section 77 against a refusal to grant bail, the Court of Appeal determines that bail shall be granted, it shall have the same powers to impose any condition of bail that a Judge has under section 74.

79. Execution of decision of Court of Appeal - (1) Where, on any appeal under section 77 against a refusal to grant bail, the Court of Appeal determines that bail shall be granted, the Judge whose decision was appealed against, or, if he is unable to act, another Judge of the High Court, shall, on being informed of the decision of the Court of Appeal, order that the defendant be released on bail, subject to such condition as the Court of Appeal may have specified in its decision.

(2) Where, on an appeal under section 77 against a condition of bail, the Court of Appeal cancels or amends that condition or substitutes any other condition, the Registrar of the Court whose decision was appealed against shall send written notice to the defendant and to every surety requiring them to attend at a specified time and place for the execution of a fresh bail bond containing the conditions (if any) required to give effect to the Court of Appeal's decision.

(3) If, in any case to which subsection (2) applies, the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to attend at the time and place required, or fails to enter into a fresh bail bond as aforesaid, the Registrar shall refer the matter to a Judge, who may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

(4) If, on an appeal under section 77 against a grant of bail, the Court of Appeal determines that bail shall not be granted, and the defendant is not then in custody, the Registrar of the Court whose decision was appealed against shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, and when the defendant is brought before the Court pursuant to the warrant, he shall be remanded in custody.

(5) For the purpose of giving full effect to any decision of the Court of Appeal under section 78, the provisions of section 75 and 76, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply as if the decision were made by a Judge of the High Court under sections 73 and 74.

Fines

80. Fine may reflect illicit gains - In any case where any person is convicted of a drug dealing offence and the Court by which that person is convicted is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that any money or assets owned by the offender at the date of his trial has or have been acquired by him directly or indirectly from the offence, the Court may, having regard to the amount of such money or the value of such assets, impose a fine greater than it would otherwise have imposed on the offender for the offence.

81. Court may impose greater fine having regard to previous dealings - (1) In any case where any person is convicted of a drug dealing offence (in this section referred to as the primary offence) and the Court by which he is convicted is, on the application of the Crown -

- (a) satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that, before the commission of the primary offence, the offender had engaged in any conduct (other than conduct that constituted the primary offence) that constitutes a drug dealing offence; and
- (b) satisfied on the balance of probabilities that any money or assets owned by the offender at the date of his trial has or have been acquired by him directly or indirectly from such conduct, - the Court may, having regard to the amount of such money or the value of such assets, impose a fine greater than it would otherwise have imposed on the offender for the primary offence.

(2) Where the prosecutor intends to seek leave to adduce evidence of the matters referred to in subsection (1), he shall give written notice of his intention and of the particulars of the evidence to be adduced to the Court and to the defendant as soon as practicable after the conviction is entered, and in any event not later than 5 days before the date set for sentencing.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2), where the Court is satisfied that the information on which such an application for the exercise of the Court's powers could be based has come into the prosecutor's hands too late for him to give 7 days notice as required by that subsection, the Court may allow the prosecutor to give such shorter notice as may be necessary in the circumstances, but shall, if requested to do so by the defendant, postpone sentencing to a date not earlier than 7 days after the prosecutor gives such notice.

82. Court's power not to be exercised in certain cases - (1) The power conferred by section 81(1) shall not be exercised by any Court -

- (a) in respect of any conduct in relation to which the defendant has been charged with a drug dealing offence but acquitted of that charge;

(b) in respect of any money or assets in relation to which the power has been previously exercised by any Court.

(2) The powers conferred by sections 80 and 81(1) shall not be exercised by any Court so as to impose a fine greater than the maximum prescribed by section 7(2)(b).

83. Inability of offender to explain source of money or assets may be evidence - (1) Where, in any case to which section 80 applies, the offender fails to explain to the Court's satisfaction the source of any money or assets owned by him, the Court may accept that as evidence that the money or assets was or were derived by the offender from the offence.

(2) Where, on any application for the exercise of the Court's power under section 81, the Court is satisfied in accordance with subsection (1)(a) of that section that the offender has committed any previous drug dealing offence, and the offender fails to explain to the Court's satisfaction the source of any money or assets owned by him, the Court may accept that as evidence that the money or assets was or were derived by the offender from that previous drug dealing offence.

84. Court may treat alienated property as offender's - Where, in any case to which section 80 or 81 applies, it appears to the Court that any disposition of money or assets has been made, whether for value or not, by or on behalf of or by direction of or in the interests of the defendant to defeat the exercise of the Court's power under those sections, the Court may, on the application of the prosecutor or of its own motion, treat the money or assets as belonging to the offender for the purposes of those sections.

85. Enforcement of fines imposed in Court - Where the Court sentences an offender on conviction on indictment of a drug dealing offence to pay a fine and that fine is not paid within 14 days thereafter, or within such further time as may be allowed or fixed for the payment thereof, the following provisions shall apply -

- (a) the Registrar shall inquire into the means of the offender and shall -
  - (i) where, the offender is detained in a penal institution, issue a warrant to produce the offender; or
  - (ii) issue a summons requiring the offender, unless he sooner pays the amount outstanding under the conviction, to appear at the time and place appointed in the summons; or
  - (iii) if in the opinion of the Registrar a warrant is necessary to compel the attendance of the defendant, issue a warrant to arrest him and bring him before the Court to enable the offender to be orally examined as to means;
- (b) on completion of his inquiry, the Registrar shall make a report as to the offenders means, so far as he has been able to ascertain them, to the Judge who imposed the fine or, if that Judge is unable to act, any other Judge;
- (c) the Judge to whom a report is made under paragraph (d) shall consider the report, and may make such order as he thinks fit. including an order -

- (i) for the remission of either the whole or part of the fine; or
  - (ii) for the issue of a writ of sale; or
  - (iii) for the immediate imprisonment of the offender; or
  - (iv) allowing time for payment or allowing payment by instalments;
- (d) any money or assets treated as the offender's pursuant to section 84 shall be deemed to be property of the offender and amenable as such to any order of the Judge under paragraph (c).

86. Garnishee proceedings - (1) For the purpose of enforcing the payment of any fine imposed by any court on conviction of the offender of a drug dealing offence, a sum that stands to the credit of the offender with any person (including a bank or savings bank) and that is on deposit with that person or is held by him in a current or other account (including a deposit account) shall be deemed to be a sum due or accruing to the Registrar enforcing the fine and shall be attachable accordingly, notwithstanding that any of the following conditions applicable to the deposit or account, that is to say -

- (a) any condition that notice is required before any money is withdrawn;
- (b) any condition that a demand for payment must be made;
- (c) any condition that a personal application must be made before any money is withdrawn;
- (d) any other condition (other than a condition that a deposit book, receipt for money deposited, or other like document must be produced before any money is withdrawn), has not been satisfied.

(2) In exercising his powers under section 85 the Registrar may require any person who has in his possession or knows the whereabouts of any deposit book, receipt for any money deposited, or other like document relating to the deposit or account of the offender to deliver that book, receipt, or document to the Court or to disclose its whereabouts to the Court, as the case may require; and for that purpose the Registrar may summon any such person to appear before him at such time and place as he may specify, or issue a warrant for the arrest of that person so that he may be brought before the Registrar.

Judge of the High Court

FIFTH SCHEDULE*STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

You have been detained under section 45 of the Narcotics and Misuse of Drugs Act 2004 because it is believed that you have secreted within your body any Class A controlled drugs or Class B controlled drugs for an unlawful purpose.

READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY, IT TELLS YOU WHAT RIGHTS YOU HAVE WHILE THE DETENTION CONTINUES

MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS:

You will be asked if you wish to undergo certain types of medical examination that may help to determine whether or not you have any Class A controlled drugs or Class B controlled drugs secreted within your body.

For this reason, a doctor will be asked to see you to explain just what is involved in each type of examination.

NO SUCH EXAMINATION MAY TAKE PLACE WITHOUT YOUR CONSENT

If you do wish to undergo an examination, you will be asked to put your consent to the examination in writing.

If you refuse your consent, you may change your mind later. Just tell one of the officers supervising your detention.

If you decide not to have an examination, that fact, and any reasons you give for it, may be put before the Judge in any further proceedings.

DETENTION WARRANT:

As soon as possible after detaining you, the officer must apply to a Judge for a warrant to authorise your continued detention.

If the Judge grants the warrant, you may be detained for up to 7 days or such shorter period as the Judge may order. However, a warrant may be renewed by a Judge for further periods of up to 7 days each, if the Judge is satisfied that there are still reasonable grounds for believing that you have any Class A controlled drugs or Class B controlled drugs secreted within your body. You may not be detained for longer than 21 days.

SUPERVISING LAWYER AND DOCTOR:

If the Judge issues a detention warrant, he or she must appoint a lawyer and a doctor to see that your rights are protected and that you are properly cared for while you are being detained. These people are NOT there as part of the team detaining you: they are there as agents of the Court to ensure fair play. You should consult them on any legal or medical matter that is worrying you.

However, you are also entitled to arrange for your own lawyer or doctor to visit and advise you.

RIGHT OF APPEAL:

You may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the issue or renewal of a detention warrant, or against any condition of detention imposed by the High Court Judge. If you wish to appeal, consult the Court lawyer or your own lawyer.

VISITING RIGHTS:

While you are detained, the Court lawyer and the Court doctor may visit you at any time. Your own lawyer, your own doctor, and any other person you may reasonably wish to see may call on you at any reasonable time.

END OF DETENTION:

You must be released if the Judge refuses to grant a detention warrant, or refuses to renew it, or the warrant is cancelled by the Court on appeal.

You must also be released if a medical examination shows that you do not have any Class A controlled drugs or Class B controlled drugs secreted within your body, or if the officers detaining you cease to believe that you have any such drugs secreted within your body.

If you are arrested, your detention under section 45 of the Narcotics and Misuse of Drugs Act 2004 will cease, and you will then be detained under arrest. From then on, you will have all the rights of an arrested person.

COURT ACCESS:

You will not be entitled to appear in Court while you are in detention. However, the Court lawyer and your own lawyer will be entitled to address the Court on appeal against a detention warrant or a condition of detention, or where an application is made for a renewal of the warrant.

FURTHER ADVICE:

This is only a brief summary of your rights. If there is anything you do not understand, talk to the Court lawyer or your own lawyer.
