PART I PRELIMINARY

3. Application – (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), this Act binds the Crown.

(2) Unless expressly provided or the context requires otherwise, this Act applies to –

- (a) vessels owned by or on demise charter to a qualified person;
- (b) the owner, master and crew of such vessels,

but, subject to subsection (3), does not apply to a government ship or the master and crew of a government ship.

(3) Regulations may prescribe the extent to which the provisions of this Act may apply to –

- (a) a government ship;
- (b) a vessel that is not a Cook Islands vessel;
- (c) the owner, master and crew of a vessel referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b);
- (d) platforms and structures used on, over or under water.

(4) This Act shall be interpreted, and all persons exercising or performing functions, duties or powers conferred or imposed by or under this Act shall act in a manner consistent with the international and regional obligations of the Cook Islands relating to shipping, maritime safety and commerce and the preservation and protection of the marine environment.

(5) The provisions of this Act, if inconsistent with a convention, may be amended, repealed and extended as may be prescribed and any such regulations may come into force either in part or whole on a date either before or after the date that they are made.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (2) and any regulations prescribed under subsection (3), a government ship means a ship –

- (a) wholly owned by the Government of the Cook Islands; or
- (b) chartered by and under the management and control of the Cook Islands Government.

PART 2 ADMINISTRATION

4. Administration – Subject to section 7, the Secretary shall be responsible to the Minister for the administration of this Act.

5. Powers and functions of Secretary – The Secretary shall have all the functions and powers as are conferred on the Secretary in or under this Act or as are necessary for the purposes of this Act.

6. Delegation by Secretary – (1) The Secretary may, in writing, delegate any responsibility, function or power to any other person.

(2) A person to whom a responsibility, function or power is delegated may, with the consent of the Secretary, delegate that responsibility, function or power to any other person.

(3) The performance of a responsibility, function or power by a person to whom it is delegated shall be valid and effective as if performed by the person delegating.

(4) A delegation of a responsibility, function or power under this section shall not prevent the performance of that responsibility, function or power by the Secretary.

(5) A person purporting to act under a delegation under this section shall be deemed to be acting pursuant to and consistent with such delegation unless the contrary is established.

PART 3
SHIPS REGISTRY

Administration

7. Administration of this Part – The Administrator appointed under section 8 shall be responsible for the administration of this Part.

8. Appointment of Administrator – (1) The Minister may with the approval of Cabinet enter into a contract on behalf of the Government appointing an Administrator to perform the responsibilities and functions of the Administrator under this Act and as may be provided by that contract.

(2) In the event that no Administrator has been appointed in accordance with subsection (1), references to the Administrator shall be construed as references to the Secretary.

9. Functions and powers of Administrator – (1) It shall be the function of the Administrator to –

- (a) supervise and ensure the proper administration of this Part;
- (b) promote the Register;
- (c) provide offices, and engage services, facilities and personnel for the due administration of this Part and the promotion of the Register;
- (d) undertake such other functions or services as may be agreed between the Administrator and the Government or organisation or person.

(2) The Administrator shall have all such powers necessary to perform the Administrators functions including the power to –

- (a) enter into contracts for the performance or provision by any other person of those functions conferred on the Administrator under this Act;
- (b) charge fees in respect of the performance and provision of services provided under this and any other Act in relation to vessels.

(3) Notwithstanding section 68 of the Ministry of Finance and Economic Development Act 1995/96, all fees charged by the Administrator to a vessel shall be the property of the Administrator.

(4) All fees charged by the Administrator shall, from the date rendered until paid, be a first charge against the vessel in the name of the Administrator.

(5) The Administrator and every officer, employee and agent of the Administrator shall not be civilly liable for any act or omission in the performance of their functions and the exercise of their powers under this Act unless they have acted in bad faith.

10. Administrator to report to Secretary - (1) The Administrator shall within 3 months after the end of each year report to the Secretary on the Administrators financial accounts and the performance of the Administrators functions under this Act.

(2) The Secretary may for good cause engage any person to provide independent verification of the Administrators report under subsection (1).

(3) The Administrator and the Secretary shall consult on the recommendations (if any) made by the person appointed under subsection (2) and where reasonable and practicable shall implement those recommendations.

11. Registrar of Ships - (1) There shall be a Registrar of Ships who shall be appointed by the Administrator with the approval of the Secretary which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(2) The terms and conditions upon which the Registrar is appointed shall be determined by the Administrator.

(3) It shall be the function of the Registrar to -

- (a) determine if a vessel shall be registered under this Part;
- (b) properly maintain the Register;
- (c) ensure that Cook Islands vessels are safe, seaworthy and properly manned in accordance with the requirements of this Act and any other Act applying to such vessels;
- (d) issue or facilitate the issue of such information bulletins, certificates, licenses, approvals, exemptions and dispensations as may be required by Cook Islands vessels and their crew;
- (e) require the production of such information as is necessary for the performance of the Registrars functions and administration of this Part;
- (f) perform such other functions conferred on the Registrar by this Act and any other Act or as may be prescribed.

(4) The Registrar shall have all the powers necessary to perform the Registrars functions and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the power to -

- (a) specify procedures to be followed for the registration of vessels and the administration of this Part;
- (b) determine, if not prescribed, the form of registers, certificates, applications, declarations, notices and other documents necessary for the registration of and other matters relating to vessels, maintenance of the Register and the administration of this Part;
- (c) determine, if not prescribed, the manner in which applications, declarations and other documents necessary for the registration of and other matters relating to vessels shall be executed, attested and registered;
- (d) exercise, subject to any conditions or qualifications specified by the Secretary, such powers of the Secretary as are necessary for the purpose of subsection (3)(c);

- (e) issue infringement notices for infringement deficiencies and impose and collect infringement fines in the manner prescribed.

(5) In the performance of the Registrars responsibilities and functions and the exercise of the Registrars powers, the Registrar shall be responsible to the Administrator and shall be subject to any directions from the Administrator.

(6) The Registrar shall not be personally liable in respect of any act or omission when acting in that capacity unless the Registrar has acted in bad faith.

12. Delegation by Registrar – (1) The Registrar may with the approval of the Administrator, –

- (a) appoint any person to be a Deputy Registrar on terms and conditions; and
- (b) in writing, delegate to a Deputy Registrar or any other person, any or all of the Registrars responsibilities, functions and powers.

(2) The performance of a responsibility, function or power by a person to whom it is delegated shall be valid and effective as if performed by the Registrar.

(3) A delegation of a responsibility, function or power under this section shall not prevent the performance of that responsibility, function or power by the Registrar.

(4) A Deputy Registrar or other person to whom a responsibility, function or power is delegated shall not be personally liable in respect of any act or omission when acting in that capacity unless that person has acted in bad faith.

Registration

13. Conditions of registration – (1) Subject to section 14, a vessel shall, be entitled to be entered upon the Register if, –

- (a) the vessel is or will be wholly owned by a qualified person; or
- (b) the majority of the shares in the vessel are or will be owned by a qualified person.

(2) An application for registration of a vessel shall describe the vessel and contain such information as the Registrar shall require so as to determine, –

- (a) the age of the vessel;
- (b) the safety of the vessel;
- (c) the seaworthiness of the vessel;
- (d) the manning levels required for the vessel;
- (e) the owners of the vessel;
- (f) if the vessel is registered elsewhere, it has been or will be (in the case of provisional registration) deregistered;
- (g) the surveys to be conducted and the certificates required to be issued for the vessel to comply with this Act or any other Act;

- (h) subject to regulations being prescribed, the representative person in the Cook Islands for the vessel;
- (i) such other matters as the Registrar may deem necessary to fulfill the Registrars functions, duties and obligations under this Act and any other Act.

(3) A qualified person shall be entitled to have a private pleasure craft or small ship entered on the register provided that the Registrar is satisfied that at the time of application it complies with any requirements prescribed under this and any other Act relating to private pleasure craft or small ships.

14. Refusal of registration – (1) The Registrar may refuse to register a vessel if, –

- (a) it is a ship, it is more than 20 years old;
- (b) The vessel will remain registered elsewhere;
- (c) the vessel's condition is such that it is unsafe, not seaworthy, a pollution risk or in some other respect will not substantially comply with this Act or any other Act;
- (d) the vessel is not in good standing because it has been engaged in contravention of a convention (whether or not the Cook Islands is a party to that convention) or the law of another State;
- (e) the owners or any persons associated with the owners are not of good standing having been convicted of an offence elsewhere relating to the operation of the vessel;
- (f) the vessel or the applicants for registration do not otherwise qualify for registration;
- (g) registration would be detrimental to the interests of the Cook Islands.

(2) The Registrar may, subject to conditions that the Registrar may impose, grant a dispensation from compliance with a requirement for registration of a vessel if the Registrar is satisfied –

- (a) that compliance is not necessary;
- (b) there has been substantial compliance;
- (c) there has been compliance in an alternative manner.

(3) The Minister may, if the Minister is of the opinion that registration of a vessel is detrimental to the interests of the Cook Islands, direct the Registrar in writing that the vessel not be registered or that the registration of the vessel be cancelled and the reasons therefore.

(4) If the Registrar receives a directive under subsection (4), the Registrar shall take all such steps as may be necessary to either, -

- (a) prevent the vessel from being registered; or
- (b) cancel the registration of the vessel in accordance with section 17.

15. Certificate of registration – (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the application for registration should be granted, the vessel shall be entered on the Register and a certificate of registration issued in respect of the vessel.

(2) A certificate of registration shall be valid and effective until it is cancelled or expires.

(3) The issue of a certificate of registration in respect of a vessel shall have the effect of –

- (a) permitting the vessel to fly the national flag and to be marked with a Cook Islands port of registry in accordance with the requirements of this Act; and
- (b) the vessel having Cook Islands nationality and the Cook Islands becoming the competent authority to exercise exclusive jurisdiction and control over the vessel in accordance with the laws of the Cook Islands.

16. Provisional certificate of registration – (1) If an application for registration of a vessel does not contain all the information required by the Registrar, the Registrar may, pending receipt of that information and subject to such conditions as the Registrar may impose, enter the vessel upon the Register and issue a certificate of provisional registration if there is confirmation, –

- (a) of the name of the vessel;
- (b) of the identity of the owners of the vessel; and
- (c) of the description of the vessel;
- (d) of the tonnage and build of the vessel if the Tonnage Convention applies.

(2) A certificate of provisional registration shall –

- (a) record the matters set out in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c);
- (b) issue for a period determined by the Registrar and specified in the certificate which may at any time and from time to time upon application be extended.

(3) A certificate of provisional registration shall have the same effect and validity as a certificate of registration until it is cancelled or expires. .

(4) The period of validity of a certificate of provisional registration under subsection (1) together with any extensions under subsection (2) shall not exceed 6 months.

17. Cancellation of registration – (1) The Registrar may cancel a certificate or provisional certificate of registration of a vessel and remove the vessel from the Register if the owner has applied to have the vessel removed from the Register or the Registrar is satisfied –

- (a) the vessel has not, cannot or ceases to comply with this Act or any other Act;
- (b) the owner of the majority of the shares in the vessel ceases to be a qualified person;
- (c) the vessel ceases to be safe;
- (d) the vessel ceases to be seaworthy;

- (e) the vessel has become a pollution risk;
- (f) the vessel ceases to be of good standing because it has been engaged in contravention of the laws of the Cook Islands or another State or a convention (whether or not the Cook Islands is a party to that convention);
- (g) the owners or persons associated with the owners cease to be of good standing;
- (h) the vessel remains or is or about to be registered elsewhere;
- (i) information requested by the Registrar and necessary for the continued registration of the vessel has not been supplied to the Registrar;
- (j) the ownership changes;
- (k) fees invoiced by and due to the Administrator have not been paid;
- (l) continued registration would be detrimental to the interests of the Cook Islands;
- (m) any penalty imposed on the owner by the Registrar or the Court has remained unpaid for a period of more than 3 months and no appeal against that penalty is pending;
- (n) any summons issued by the Court has been duly served on the owner and the owner has without justification failed to answer to that summons;
- (o) the vessel has become a total loss.

(2) If the Registrar intends that a vessel be removed from the Register for the reasons set out in subsection (1) and the certificate or provisional certificate of registration be cancelled, the Registrar shall give written notice to the owner of the vessel

- (a) specifying the reasons why the vessel is to be removed from the Register;
- (b) the date upon which the vessel will be removed from the Register being a date no less than 30 days from the date of service of the notice on the owner unless the reasons for the cancellation necessitates a shorter period of time (which shall not be less than 7 days after the date upon which the notice is deemed to have been received);
- (c) requiring the owner to give reason before the date of removal why the vessel should not be removed from the Register and the certificate or provisional certificate of registration cancelled.

(3) If the owner fails to give any reason why the vessel should not be removed from the Register and the certificate or provisional certificate of registration cancelled or if the Registrar is not satisfied with the reasons given, the Registrar may remove the vessel from the Register and cancel the certificate or provisional certificate of registration on the date specified in the notice or any date thereafter.

(4) As soon as practicable after service upon the owner of the notice given under subsection (2), a copy of the notice (along with a copy of this section) shall be served upon every person having a registered interest in respect of the vessel and any such person may apply to the Court not later than 7 days after the date on which the notice was received for an order staying the cancellation of the vessels registration and the Court may as make such orders, impose such conditions and require such securities and undertakings as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) Where the owner applies to have the vessel removed from the Register, the Registrar shall remove the vessel from the Register subject to –

- (a) proof of consent of any person having a registered interest in the vessel or, in the absence of such consent, an order of the Court;
- (b) payment of all outstanding fees and charges in respect of the vessel including those for the removal of the vessel from the Register;
- (c) satisfaction of any outstanding obligation in respect of the vessel under this Act or any other Act;
- (d) any other matter relating to the administration and enforcement of this Act that in the opinion of the Registrar properly precludes the removal of the vessel from the Register;
- (e) any order of the Court.

18. Effect of expiry or cancellation of certificate of registration – (1) A certificate or provisional certificate of registration shall cease to have effect upon the expiration of the day that its term expires or it is cancelled.

(2) Nothing in section 17 shall apply in respect of the expiry of a certificate or provisional certificate of registration.

(3) The owner of a vessel for which a certificate or provisional certificate of registration that has expired or has been cancelled shall cause the certificate to be surrendered to the Registrar.

(4) The owner and master of a vessel each commit an offence against this Act if a certificate or provisional certificate of registration that has expired or has been cancelled is –

- (a) not surrendered to the Registrar;
- (b) proffered or represented as being valid and current unless it is proved that all reasonable steps were taken to prevent it from being so proffered or represented.

Demise Charter Registration

19. Demise charter registration – (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a vessel on demise charter to a qualified person may on application to the Registrar be registered under this Act on the same basis as if that person was the owner of that vessel.

(2) A vessel on demise charter may not be entered on the Register until there has been lodged with the Registrar –

- (a) proof of deletion or suspension of the prior registration (if any);
- (b) the consent of the owner to registration;
- (c) a certified copy of the charter party.

(3) If the Registrar is satisfied that the application for registration of a vessel on demise charter should be granted, the vessel shall be entered on the Register and a certificate of registration issued in respect of the vessel which shall be valid and take effect from a date specified in the certificate until expiry of the period of the charter party or until the charter party terminates.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the charterer shall within 7 working days of any change in the period of the charter party give notice to the Registrar of those changes and any certificate issued under this section shall be reissued or cancelled in accordance with that notice.

(5) Any charterer of a vessel who fails to give notice in accordance with subsection (4) commits an offence against this Act.

(6) Subject to section 16(1) and subsection (2)(b) and (c) of this section being satisfied, the Registrar may provisionally register a vessel on demise charter and issue a certificate of provisional registration in the same manner and having the same effect and duration as set out in section 16(2), (3) and (4).

(7) The registration of a vessel under subsections (3) or (6) shall have the same effect provided for in section 15(3).

(8) The Registrar may cancel a certificate or provisional certificate of registration of a vessel on demise charter –

- (a) if the charter party terminates before expiry of the period of the charter party; or
- (b) for the reasons provided in section 17(1) but subject to the manner provided in section 17(2), (3) and (4).

(9) Section 18 shall apply with all necessary modification to a certificate and provisional certificate of registration issued in accordance with this section and which have either expired or been cancelled and the charterer and master of the vessel shall be liable under subsection (4) of that section and in the case of the charterer, as if the charterer were the owner.

(10) If a certificate of registration is issued in accordance with this section and a mortgage or charge is recorded against the vessel in the register of prior registration, the Registrar may on application of the owner, mortgagee or charge holder –

- (a) register the mortgage or charge upon the Register and if more than one in the order agreed by the persons entitled to the mortgages or charges;
- (b) issue a notice of registration setting out the order of registration.

Surveys, Tonnage, Markings and National Flag Requirements in General

20. Surveys – (1) To determine if a vessel can or can continue to be registered under this Part, the Registrar may require the ship to be surveyed for a purpose and in a manner directed by the Registrar.

(2) A survey under subsection (1) shall be conducted by a surveyor appointed by the Registrar.

(3) A surveyor appointed under subsection (2) shall not be personally liable in respect of any act or omission when acting in that capacity unless the surveyor has acted in bad faith.

21. Tonnage – (1) A ship shall before it is registered and while registered have a current tonnage certificate issued by the Registrar in accordance with this Act. The Registrar shall enter that certificate upon the Register which shall, subject to subsection (2), be conclusive of the ships tonnage, build and other particulars descriptive of the ship.

(2) The Registrar may direct that a ships tonnage be re-measured in accordance with this Act if the Registrar believes that the measurement would be materially different from its existing measurement.
