NATIONAL LOANS BOARD (AMENDMENT) ACT 1984

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The Act amends the National Loans Board Ordinance in two ways.

Firstly it repeals the words "subject to section 99 of the Constitution" wherever they occur throughout the Ordinance (Section 2). Such amendment enables the Minister to appoint members of the Board without reference to the Public Service Commission.

Secondly it repeals the existing Section 7(1) of the Ordinance which relates to the appointment of staffs of the Board. Presently the power to make such appointment is vested in the Minister. The amendment empowers the Board apart from the appointment of the Executive Secretary to appoint and remove staffs of the Board acting in accordance with the advice of the Public Service Commission and also to determine the level of salaries or remuneration of officers or staffs of the Board but must be guided by salary structures and conditions in the Public Service. (Section 3).

LEGAL REPORT

I hereby certify my opinion that none of the provisions of the above Act conflict with the Constitution and that the Beretitenti may properly assent to the Act.
