

THE ISLAND OF NAURU

NO. 2 OF 1955

A N O R D I N A N C E

To amend the Licences Ordinance 1922-1939

BE it ordained by the Administrator of the Island of Nauru, acting in pursuance of the powers conferred by Article 1 of the Agreement dated the second day of July, 1919, between the Government of the United Kingdom, the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia and the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, as follows:-

Short title and citation.

1.-(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Licences Ordinance 1955.

(2.) The Licences Ordinance 1922-1939 is, in this Ordinance, referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3.) The Principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Licences Ordinance 1922-1955.

Sale of intoxicating liquors.

2. Section ten of the Principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section inserted in its stead:-

"10.-(1.) A person shall not deal in, sell or offer for sale any wines, spirits, beer, or other intoxicating liquor unless he is licensed so to do by a licence issued and still in force under the provisions of this Ordinance. Penalty - £100 or imprisonment for one year.

(2.) A person licensed to deal in or to sell wines, spirits, and beer shall not permit any intoxicating liquor to be consumed on the premises specified in the licence unless that licence expressly authorizes him so to do. Penalty - £50 or imprisonment for three months.

(3.) A person shall not consume any intoxicating liquor on any premises in respect of which a licence to deal in or sell wines, spirits, and beer has been issued unless that licence expressly authorizes sale of that liquor for consumption on those premises. Penalty - £15 or imprisonment for one month."
