PART 1- PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Naoero Citizenship Act 2017.

2 Commencement

This Act commences upon certification by the Speaker.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Act:

'child of a Nauruan' includes a child adopted under the Adoption Act 1965;

'citizen' refers to a citizen of the Republic of Nauru;

'Court' means the Supreme Court;

'honorary citizenship' means citizenship granted by the Cabinet to a foreign individual whom the Cabinet considers deserving of distinction;

'Minister' for the purposes of this Act shall be the Minister for Justice and Border Control;

'Nauruan' for the purposes of this Act means a citizen of the Republic of Nauru as defined in section 4;

'Nauruan Community' shall only include:

- (a) persons who were or were deemed to be aboriginal natives of the Republic by virtue of institutions, customs and usages of the aboriginal natives of the Republic;
- (b) Pacific islanders married before 1 January 1954 to persons who were or were deemed to be aboriginal natives of the Republic by virtue of institutions, customs and usages of the aboriginal natives of the Republic;
- (c) Pacific islanders who were admitted to the Nauruan community before 31 January 1968; and
- (d) persons whose either or both parents fall within subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) above.

'Pacific islander' means:

- (a) a person who was ordinarily resident in the Republic and is a descendant of the aboriginal natives of an island or archipelago in the Pacific ocean other than:
 - (i) the Republic;
 - (ii) an island or archipelago which appertains geographically to Asia, the Americas, Australia, New Zealand, India or Japan;
- (b) a person partly descended from those aboriginal natives who followed, adhered to or adapted the customs of those aboriginal natives before residing in the Republic but does not include a Nauruan;

'Register' means the Register of Nauruan citizens established and maintained by the Secretary under section 5;

'Secretary' means the Secretary for Justice and Border Control;

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a person is ordinarily a resident of the Republic if he or she:
 - (a) is domiciled in the Republic;
 - (b) has a permanent domicile in the Republic, despite he or she being temporarily absent from the Republic; or
 - (c) has evidence to indicate his or her intention to return to the Republic despite his or her extended absence.

PART 2 – CITIZENS OF THE REPUBLIC

4 Persons who are citizens

For the purposes of the laws in force in the Republic, the following persons are citizens:

- (a) persons who on 31 January 1968 were included in one of the classes of persons who constituted the Nauruan community as prescribed in Article 71 of the Constitution;
- (b) persons born on or after 31 January 1968 whose one or both parents were members of the:
 - (i) Nauruan community; or
 - (ii) citizens;
- (c) persons born on or after 31 January 1968 of a marriage between a citizen and a Pacific islander and neither parent had exercised any rights within 7 days after the birth of that person to determine that such person is not a citizen;

- (d) a person born in the Republic on or after 31 January 1968 is a citizen if, at the date of his or her birth, he or she would not but for the provisions of Article 73 of the Constitution, have the nationality of any country;
- (e) persons who were admitted or recognised as members of the Nauruan community after 31 January 1968;
- (f) persons granted citizenships under any former laws of the Republic; and
- (g) persons granted citizenships under this Act.

PART 3 - CITIZENSHIP REGISTER

5 Citizenship Register

 - (ii) when the oath of allegiance or affirmation is taken or made.

PART 4 – APPLICATION AND REGISTRATION OF CITIZENSHIP

6 Power to grant citizenship

The Minister in consultation with the Cabinet may grant citizenship to a person applying for citizenship under this Act.

7 Application for citizenship

- (1) An application for citizenship shall be made to the Secretary in the prescribed form.
- (2) The applicant shall pay the prescribed fee when making an application for citizenship.
- (3) An applicant shall be over the age 20 years or in the case of children, the principal applicant shall be over the age of 20 years.
- (4) In considering the application the Secretary shall:
 - (a) cause any investigation as may be necessary;
 - (b) prepare a report; and
 - (c) submit the report to the Minister with his or her recommendations.
- (5) The Minister shall provide the report to the Cabinet for its consideration before making a decision.
- (6) Where the Minister in consultation with the Cabinet is satisfied that the applicant should be granted citizenship, the Minister may:
 - (a) grant citizenship to the applicant; and
 - (b) publish in the Gazette that the applicant has been granted citizenship.
- (7) Where the Minister or the Minister in consultation with the Cabinet does not accept the recommendations of the Secretary, the application shall be returned to the Secretary for such action as may be necessary.

8 No appeals or reviews of decisions

A decision of the Minister or the Minister acting in consultation with the Cabinet shall:

- (a) be final and conclusive; and
- (b) not be subject to any appeals or reviews by the Court.

PART 5 - ACQUISITION OF CITIZENSHIP

9 Citizenship by birth

A person born in the Republic is a citizen by birth, provided that at the time of the person's birth either or both parents of that person is a citizen.

10 Person born aboard a vessel or aircraft

(1) Subject to subsection (3), a person born aboard a vessel or aircraft from or to the Republic shall not be deemed to be born in the Republic.

(2) The Minister in consultation with the Cabinet may grant citizenship to a person born aboard a vessel or aircraft, where the person as a result of subsection (1):

(a) becomes stateless; or

(b) is unable to obtain citizenship of any other country.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a person whose one or both parents are citizens.

11 Citizenship by birth in the Republic and residency

(1) A person may apply for citizenship if the person:

(a) is born in the Republic to parents who are not citizens; and

(b) has for a continuous period of 20 years resided in the Republic.

(2) Any temporary absence from the Republic shall not affect the requirement of subsection (1)(b).

12 Citizenship by descent

(1) A person born outside the Republic shall be deemed to be a citizen, if at the time of the person's birth either or both parents were citizens.

(2) A person, whose parents have renounced citizenship, shall be eligible to apply for citizenship if at the time of the person's application for citizenship at least one or more of the maternal or paternal grandparents of the person were citizens.

13 Citizenship by marriage

(1) A person may apply for citizenship by virtue of a marriage to a citizen.

- (2) Any person applying for citizenship under this section shall fulfil the following conditions:

- (a) serve a notice in writing to the person informing him or her of the grounds or reasons on which the cancellation is to be considered; and
 - (b) request the person to show cause why the citizenship should not be cancelled.
- (4) If within 7 days after the service of the notice under subsection (2) the person fails to show cause, the Cabinet shall proceed to making its decision.
- (5) The Cabinet in the cancellation of citizenship shall take into account whether the person would become stateless.
- (6) A person ceases to be a citizen on the date that the Cabinet makes its decision.
- (7) On the cancellation of citizenship the:
- (a) Certificate of Citizenship is deemed to be annulled and is of no effect; and
 - (b) person shall forthwith return the Certificate of Citizenship to the Secretary.

- (8) The Secretary shall require the person to deliver the Certificate of Citizenship where the certificate is not returned within 30 days of the cancellation of the citizenship.

24 Deprivation of citizenship

- (1) A person granted citizenship under section 14 shall be deprived of his or her citizenship upon remarrying a non-Nauruan after a divorce or on the death of his or her spouse.
- (2) The children of the marriage under section 14 shall not be deprived of or forfeit their citizenship as a result of subsection (1).
- (3) On the deprivation of citizenship under this section, the:
- (a) Certificate of Citizenship is deemed to be annulled and is of no effect; and
 - (b) person shall forthwith return the Certificate of Citizenship to the Secretary.
- (4) The Secretary shall require the person to deliver the Certificate of Citizenship to him or her where the certificate is not returned within 30 days of the deprivation of the citizenship.

25 Nauruan travel documents

- (1) Where a person has been deprived of, has renounced or has his or her citizenship cancelled, the person shall not be eligible to obtain or retain a travel document issued under the Passports Act 2011.
- (2) Any travel document issued to a person in subsection (1) shall be seized or cancelled immediately by the Secretary under the Passports Act 2011.

PART 8 - OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

26 Offences and penalties

- (1) A person commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years or both, if he or she:
- (a) for the purposes of procuring anything to be done or not to be done under this Act:
