G.N.No. 87/2003

PRACTICE NOTE NO. 1 OF 2003

SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS IN CIVIL MATTERS

1. It has come to the notice of the Court that there have been occasions whereby parties have filed documents in civil matters or causes and these documents were not served on the other parties to the matter or causes. Nor is there any return of service where documents have been served.
2. The responsibility for service of documents lies with the party filing the document in the court registry. It is not the responsibility of the court nor its staff to serve document in civil matters or causes.
3. The party concerned in accordance with Order 42 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1972 must serve document.
4. When a document is filed the court registry staff will register the document in accordance with registry practice and will retain the original on the court file. At least two copies are filed with the original and these two copies will be registered and return to the party who filed the documents.
5. Where more than two copies are required, depending on the number of parties involved, then sufficient copies should be presented for registration. The copies will be returned to the party for purposes of service on other parties.
6. Following service of the documents, an affidavit of service of document should then be filed with the court registry as evidence of service. See: Rule 42(7).
7. Service of document on the President, Cabinet, Ministers or a public officer in his official capacity shall be served on the Secretary for Justice as the Nominal Defendant.

Issued 2nd April 2003
