G.N.No. 15 / 2008

IMMIGRATION ACT 1999

In exercise of the powers conferred upon it by Section 19 of the Immigration Act 1999, The Cabinet has this day made the following Regulations.

IMMIGRATION (TOURIST VISAS) REGULATIONS 2007

Short title and commencement

1. (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Immigration (Tourist Visas) Regulation 2007.
- (2) These Regulations come into force on the date of their making.

Interpretation

2. (1) In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears ----
“Act” means the Immigration Act 1999;
- (2) Words defined in the Principal Act have the same meaning in these Regulations unless otherwise stated.

Issue of Tourist Visas

3. (1) A person holding a passport for countries listed in Schedule 1, may be issued a Tourist Visa either on arrival on Nauru or prior to travel to Nauru, by the Principal Immigration Officer upon satisfaction that such visitor –
  - (a) is in possession of a valid passport or other travel document which, will not expire within three month of the expiry of the period of the visa for which application is made;
  - (b) has a valid ticket from Nauru to travel to another country which he is authorised to enter;
  - (c) has sufficient funds for his support in Nauru during the period of the visa for which application is made;
  - (d) has confirmed reservations or bookings at a hotel or motel accommodations; and

G.N.No. 15 / 2008 (cont'd)

(e) gives no grounds for the belief that he will contravene the conditions upon which the visa may be granted.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) the Principal Immigration Officer may approve—

(a) an authorised officer to issue tourist visas on arrival in Nauru: and

(b) the issue of Tourist Visas outside of Nauru prior to the Tourist's travel to Nauru

(3) The conditions upon which a Tourist Visa may be granted are that the person, whilst in Nauru, will not---

(a) behave in a manner prejudicial to peace or good order;

(b) engage in any business, profession or employment, whether for reward or not except with the approval of the Chief Secretary; or

(c) engage in research, except with the approval of the Chief Secretary, and such visa shall be subject to any other conditions which the Principal Immigration Officer may impose consistent with the provisions of the Immigration Act 1999

(4) A Tourist Visa entitles the holder to remain in Nauru for any period not exceeding 30 days.

(5) The Principal Immigration Officer may extend the period for which a Tourist Visa has been granted if he is satisfied that the conditions for the issue of a visa will be observed—

Provided that no such extension shall be granted for a period of more than 14 days nor for more than 90 days in the aggregate.

(6) The Principal Immigration Officer may cancel a Tourist Visa if satisfied that the person to whom it was issued is not a person to whom a Tourist Visa ought to have been issued or that there has been any breach of the conditions subject to which it was granted.

(7) If a person fails to comply with the conditions of his or her visa, such person shall not, unless the Minister otherwise directs, be permitted to re-enter Nauru as a Tourist or Visitor within a period of twelve months from the date such person leaves Nauru upon cancellation of his or her Tourist Visa under the provisions of subsection (6).

(8) Except with the prior permission of the Minister, a person holding a Tourist Visa who remains in Nauru for more than seven days after expiry of the visa shall not be permitted to re-enter Nauru within a period of six months from the date of the expiry of such visa.

(9) The conditions attaching to a Tourist Visa shall upon issue of the visa be stapled to the page of the passport or travel document upon which the visa is stamped and the visa holder's attention shall be drawn to the conditions

(10) A person who is unwilling to give an undertaking to comply with the conditions in sub-regulation (2) shall be refused entry and dealt with as a prohibited immigrant.

(11) No fee is chargeable for the issue of a Tourist Visa.
