REPUBLIC OF NAURU

Legislation Publication Regulations 2011

SL No. 3 of 2011

Cabinet makes the following regulations under section 19 of the Legislation Publication Act 2011:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Legislation Publication Regulations 2011.

2 Commencement

These Regulations are taken to have commenced on 9 May 2011.

3 Definitions

In this Act:

'double-year citation', for a written law, means a citation of the law that consists of:

- (a) the words in the short title of the law; and
- (b) the year the law was made or certified; and
- (c) a later year in which the law was amended;

G.N.No. 301/ 2011(Cont'd)

'number' includes a letter;

'provision', of a written law, means a section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sub-subparagraph, proviso, chapeau, schedule, regulation, subregulation sub-subregulation, rule, subrule or sub-subrule;

'single-year citation', for a written law, means a citation of the law that consists of:

- (a) the words in the short title of the law; and
- (b) the year the law was made or certified.

PART 2 – CORRECTIONS AND EDITORIAL CHANGES

4 Correction and editing of written law

- (1) In the preparation of a written law for publication under the Act, the Parliamentary Counsel may add, remove or change any of the following in the text of the written law:
 - (a) punctuation;
 - (b) a cross-reference in a schedule to the provision of the law that gives the schedule effect;
 - (c) provision headings and notes;
 - (d) subject to subsection (3), capitalisation;

G.N.No. 301/ 2011(Cont'd)

(e) formatting.

Examples for regulation 4(1)(e)

The following are examples of formatting: the layout of provisions, the font type, use of italics and bold typeface, and the use of document headers and footers.

- (2) The Parliamentary Counsel may also add a provision number to a provision that is missing a number.
- (3) The Parliamentary Counsel must not alter the capitalisation of a word in a written law if the alteration would have the effect of:
 - (a) applying a definition to the word; or
 - (b) disapplying a definition to the word.

5 Changes in citation of written law

In the preparation of a written law for publication under the Act, the Parliamentary Counsel may change the double-year citation of the written law to a single-year citation, and reflect the change in:

- (a) the provision of the written law about the citation of the law; and
- (b) references in the text of the written law to the citation of the written law; and
- (c) references in other written laws to the citation of the written law.

G.N.No. 301/ 2011(Cont'd)

6 Numbering and placement of new provision

- (1) This regulation applies if:
 - (a) a written law (the 'amending law') amends another written law (the 'amended law') by:
 - (i) inserting a new provision; or
 - (ii) omitting or repealing an existing provision and substituting a new provision; and
 - (b) the amendment results in the numbering and placement of the new provision that is clearly contrary to the intention of the person who made the law (the 'law-maker').
- (2) In preparing a compilation of the amended law for publication, the Parliamentary Counsel may alter the placement and numbering of the new provision to reflect the intention of the law-maker.
- (3) For subregulation (1)(b), the person who made the law is:
 - (a) in the case of an Act – Parliament; or
 - (b) in the case of subsidiary legislation – the person who made the subsidiary legislation under a power given by a written law.

7 Corrections and changes not to alter effect of written law

- (1) These Regulations do not permit corrections or changes to a written law that would alter the meaning or effect of the written law.

G.N.No. 301/ 2011(Cont'd)

- (2) A correction or change purportedly made under the authority of these Regulations that alters the meaning or effect of the written law is invalid and of no effect

8 Omission of spent provisions from compilation

- (1) The Parliamentary Counsel may, when preparing a compilation of a written law for publication, omit from the compilation a provision that relates only to amendments or repeals that have been executed.
- (2) The Parliamentary Counsel must include in the compilation a reference to the omitted provision.
