*National Investment and Development Act 1974EXEMPTION FROM PART VI

I, Gavera Rea, Minister for Labour, Commerce and Industry, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 7 of the National Investment and Development Act 1974, and all other powers me enabling, having received a report from NIDA and being of the opinion that the purpose, structure, control or operation of foreign enterprises grossing not more than K4000.00 per year as such that it is not necessary that those enterprises should be treated for the purposes of Part VI of the Act as foreign enterprises, hereby exempt that class of enterprise from the operation of that Part subject to the conditions specified in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

1. Before—

- (a) the expiration of one month after the publication of this instrument in the National Gazette; or

- (b) commencing to carry on business, whichever last occurs, a foreign enterprise shall forward to NIDA a notification—

- (c) specifying the name and address of the enterprise; and
(d) giving particulars of the constitution of the enterprise; and
(e) containing a statement—

- (i) where the enterprise is a corporation—by a Director, the Secretary or any other officer of the corporation; or

- (ii) where the enterprise is a partnership—by a partner; or

- (iii) where the enterprise is sole-trader—by the proprietor; or

- (iv) where the enterprise is a co-operative society or a savings and loan society—by a member, that to the best of his knowledge and belief the annual gross revenue of the enterprise during the current financial year will not exceed K4 000.00; and

- (f) specifying the particular activities being carried on or proposed to be carried on by the enterprise; and

- (g) in the case of an enterprise which commences to carry on those activities after the date of publication of this instrument in the National Gazette—specifying the date on which it proposes to commence carrying on those activities.

2. Where a notification in respect of an enterprise is forwarded to NIDA in accordance with paragraph 1 the exemption shall operate in respect of that enterprise during the period commencing on the date on which the notification is received by NIDA and ending immediately before 1 July next following the date on which the notification is received by NIDA.

3. Subject to paragraph 4, the exemption shall continue to operate after the expiration of the period referred to in paragraph 2 for a period of 12 months and for each succeeding period of 12 months.

4. Subject to paragraph 5, the exemption shall continue to operate for a succeeding period of 12 months (in this paragraph called an "exemption period") if, and only if, during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of that exemption period the annual gross revenue of that enterprise did not exceed K4 000.00.

5. Where, by virtue of paragraph 4, an exemption would, but for this paragraph, cease to operate, the exemption shall continue to operate for a period of three months commencing immediately after the period of 12 months during which the annual gross revenue of the enterprise exceeded K4 000.00.

Dated the 6th day of July, 1976.

G. REA,
Minister for Labour, Commerce and Industry.

possible competitor from entering into competition with it;

(e) impose prices or other terms or conditions of dealing that it would be unable to impose but for its dominant position in the market in Papua New Guinea; or

(f) make it known to another enterprise that the Company will not supply goods to that other enterprise unless the other enterprise agrees to sell those goods at a price not less than that specified by the Company.

4. The Company shall consult with Papua New Guinea employees before management decisions relating to the terms and conditions of employment of such employees are made.

5. The Company will keep all books of accounts and records in Papua New Guinea and in the English language.

6. The Company will comply with all and any obligations and conditions relating to the training of employees and the localisation of its staff (including both employees and officers of the Company) which may from time to time be laid down by the Department of Labour and Industry (or any other Department which succeeds to the functions of that Department) or prescribed or declared under the Employment (Training and Regulation) Act 1971 or under any other Act dealing with training and localisation of employees.

7. The Company shall commence carrying on business in the activities in which it is registered within six months of the date of registration.

8. Subject to the Act, the registration of the Company is for five years from the date of registration but may be extended from time to time by the Minister on the application of the Company.

9. The Company shall not register any transfer of its shares until NIDA has been notified in writing of the transfer.

10. (1) If required by NIDA by notice in writing signed by the Executive Director at any time or from time to time before the third anniversary of the date of registration, the Company shall grant options to Papua New Guineans or local enterprises specified in such notice to take on allotment such shares as are necessary to bring the total shareholdings of Papua New Guineans and local enterprises in the Company up to 26% of the Company's issued share capital at the time such options are granted.

(2) If required by NIDA by notice in writing signed by the Executive Director at any time or from time to time after the third anniversary of the date of registration, the Company shall grant options to Papua New Guineans or local enterprises specified in such notice to take on allotment such shares as are necessary to bring the total shareholdings of Papua New Guineans and local enterprises in the Company up to 49% of the Company's issued share capital at the time such options are granted.

(3) Each such option granted pursuant to (1) and (2) above shall provide as follows:—

(a) The option may be exercised within a period of five years ('the Option Period');

(b) The option shall be in respect of ordinary shares which rank equally in all respects with and carry equal voting rights to other ordinary shares of the Company;

(c) The amount to be subscribed to the Company on the exercise of the option and the issue of shares in respect thereof shall be the fair value of such shares on the date of exercise, such value to be agreed upon by the Company and NIDA or in default of agreement to be determined by a reputable firm of Chartered Accountants having a practice in Papua New Guinea appointed by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia;

(d) The Services of a firm of Chartered Accounts appointed to determine the value of shares as foresaid shall be paid for by the Company;

(e) The Company shall ensure that there are sufficient unissued shares of the Company to enable the option to be exercised in full at all times during the Option Period.

(4) Provided always that the Company may in lieu of issuing shares upon exercise of any of the options procure its
