DEPARTMENT OF WORKSBURNS PEAK/SPRING GARDEN ROAD LINK, PORT MORESBY*INVITATION FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

The National Executive Council of PNG has determined that the section of Spring Garden Road in the National Capital District between Waigani Drive and Kaevaga/Konedobu adjacent to Burns Peak is to be constructed as soon as possible.

The major work in the link consists of about 1km of 4 lane urban arterial road through a ridge with rock cuts up to approximately 50m deep. Up to 4km of roads connecting to the existing road network are also required. The material from the rock cut is to be used in the construction of the roads, the construction of one or more new wharfs for coastal and container shipping, the reclamation of land for village purposes, and the reclamation of land for other harbour and development projects.

The work may be financed by a combination of any or all of the following:

- a toll on the new road link
- commercial leases on reclaimed land
- grant funding by external agencies

Other means of funding will be considered but is not intended that the Government will contribute to any major extent.

Expressions of Interest for the consideration of the Government are invited from persons interested in putting forward proposals for the financing and execution of this work which may also include planning, design, and construction. Expressions of interest should reach Department of Works by 31st July, 1990.

Further information is available from, and interest should be expressed to, the Secretary, Department of Works, P.O. Box 1108, Boroko, Papua New Guinea.
