*Fisheries Act 1994NEW IRELAND PROVINCE BECHE-DE-MER MANAGEMENT PLAN

THE NATIONAL FISHERIES AUTHORITY, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 39 of the Fisheries Act 1994, and all other powers it enabling, hereby draw up the following Fishery Management Plan to take effect on and from the date approved by the Minister.

1. CITATION:

This fishery plan may be cited as "The New Ireland Province Beche-de-mer Fishery Management Plan" hereafter referred to as Management Plan.

2. INTERPRETATION:

This Management Plan, unless the contrary intention appears:

"Beche-de-mer" means all species of the class Holothurioidea which are processed through boiling, sun drying or smoke drying and are sold in the open market as a food product.

"Maximum sustainable yield" means the highest possible catch of beche-de-mer that may be taken from the management area with minimum effect on the ability of the stock to continue to replenish itself.

"Precautionary Approach" means setting down restrictions to control harvesting in absence of adequate scientific data. These restrictions include setting of TAC, seasonal and area closure and control fishing efforts.

"Sea cucumber" means all species in the class Holothuroidea.

"Total Allowable Catch (TAC)" means the set amount of catch that is allowed to be taken out of the fishery in any one year or season. The TAC is set at a safe level based on the average annual production or on stock assessment study that may have been carried out.

"Traditional Management Practices" means methods for conservation of marine and coastal resources practiced by traditional indigenous of New Ireland, that have been passed down from generations to generations. Usually, these methods are not formally recorded.

3. SCOPE OF THE NEW IRELAND BECHE-DE-MER FISHERY MANAGEMENT PLAN:

(a) The Management Plan area shall comprise all waters within the provincial boundary of New Ireland Province.

(b) The Management Plan shall include all species of beche-de-mer of the genus Holothuria, Thelenota, Actinopyga, Bohadschia.

4. MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES:

(a) to manage the beche-de-mer fishery so that the size of the stock is moving towards the maximum sustainable yield (MSY), and to maintain the fishery at an economically sustainable level.

(b) to safeguard the beche-de-mer fishery as a source of income for resource owners and people of New Ireland.

(c) to promote management practices in New Ireland Province and to promote the beche-de-mer fishery as a sustainable fishery.

(d) to encourage self regulation through sustainable traditional management practices.

(e) to manage the fishery at a precautionary approach.

5. PRECAUTIONARY APPROACH TO BECHE-DE-MER MANAGEMENT:

In accordance with UNCLOS management principles, precautionary shall apply in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) in the absence of adequate scientific data, NFA has taken into account the uncertainties and set the management measures to be applied.

(b) the Research and Management Branch in collaboration with the New Ireland Province shall develop systems to collect data, and to undertake research into conservation of the stock and the protection of habitats.

6. MANAGEMENT MEASURES:

The following management measures are to take effect immediately:-

New Ireland Province Beche-de-mer Management Plan—continued

(a) Licensing arrangements

- (i) All beche-de-mer collected in New Ireland Province shall be exported from New Ireland. No product shall be moved to another Province for sale without clearance from the provincial Fisheries Authorities.
- (ii) Exporting and buying of beche-de-mer are restricted activities in Papua New Guinea. The issuing of licences shall be carried out with due consideration to the New Ireland Provincial Government.
- (iii) All buyers licences shall be endorsed for the buying of beche-de-mer throughout New Ireland Province with due regard to the resource owners.
- (iv) Export facility and storage facility licences and buyers licences shall be issued only for the specific handling of sedentary resources.
- (v) In the future, each applicant for a buyer's licence will be required to complete compulsory certified training to be sanctioned by the National Fisheries Authority. The content of the course will consist of the following:-
 - (a) beche-de-mer processing procedures;
 - (b) quality control;
 - (c) basic beche-de-mer biology;
 - (d) beche-de-mer fishery management; and
 - (e) beche-de-mer marketing.
- (vi) The licensees shall be required to carry out extension services in the Province to ensure production of quality products and proper implementation of the fishery plan.
- (vii) The number of beche-de-mer exporters shall be limited to a maximum of five (5) exporters.
- (viii) The number of buyers endorsed to each exporter shall be limited to a maximum of 5 buyers endorsed to each exporter.
- (ix) A buyer's licence shall be issued to the person who will be physically buying products from the fishermen. The buyers licence is not transferable to other persons.
- (x) All licences shall be endorsed by the New Ireland Provincial Government before submission to the National Fisheries Authority Board for approval.
- (xi) All licence holders shall have their licence automatically terminated if they breach licence conditions or breach Fisheries Regulations or breach the provisions of the New Ireland Province Beche-de-mer Management Plan.

(b) Size Limit

- (i) Beche-de-mer of sizes smaller than those specified in Table 1 shall not be taken (live size) or exported (dry size).
- (ii) Purchase and handling of undersized products shall result in the automatic termination of the buyers licence, the exporters licence, and fish storage licence upon successful prosecution.

New Ireland Province Beche-de-mer Management Plan—continued

- (c) Gear Restrictions
- (i) Underwater breathing apparatus (SCUBA) and Hookah are banned from being used in the waters around New Ireland, for the purpose of fishing for any sea cucumber species for processing into beche-de-mer production.
 - (ii) Underwater or surface lights at night are banned in the waters around New Ireland, for the purpose of fishing for sea cucumber species for the production of beche-de-mer product.
- (d) Species Restrictions
- (i) A species harvest restriction shall apply based on price. Species to be banned from harvest shall be determined by the New Ireland Provincial Government yearly, based on current market price.
- (e) Total Allowable Catch (TAC)
- (i) An annual TAC of 80 metric ton (mt) shall be set for New Ireland Province in 1997. The TAC for each year will be based upon the estimated maximum sustainable yield (msy) and will be variable according to the estimated recruitment and the level of exploitation. A notice to notify of the TAC for the year will be served by the Minister for Fisheries through the National Gazette.
 - (ii) Fishing will cease as soon as the TAC has been reached. Fishing will recommence on 1st February the following year.
- (f) Closed Season
- (i) A compulsory closure will occur each year from 1st October to 31st January. All buying, selling and storage of beche-de-mer shall cease at the beginning of the closed season or a declared-closed after the TAC has been reached. No product shall be kept in storage one (1) week after the commencement of closure.
- (g) Marketing
- (i) All products from New Ireland shall be exported from New Ireland. Companies who fail to export from New Ireland shall automatically lose their Export Licence.
 - (ii) To maintain the best quality all products should be properly boiled and dried following guidelines which will be available at the Provincial Fisheries Office.
 - (iii) All products packed for export will be graded by species, size and quality. Table 2 provides the standard common trade names to be used and sizes; and table 3 provides a guideline on the quality based on odour and water content.
 - (iv) All products will be packed in standard weights of 40kg using poly bags or copra bags. The bags will be labelled with the following standard labels: Product of Papua New Guinea; Name of Importer; and Name of Exporter; Species Name and Grade. Where the products are shipped by air a poly bag shall be used and where the product is shipped by sea a copra bag shall be used, in order to maintain quality.

New Ireland Province Beche-de-mer Management Plan—continuedTable 3. Guide for determining quality based on appearance, odour, moisture, spoilage state.

Appearance: A smooth and natural surface should be the normal shape of a good quality product. An uneven shrunken product will result in the product being down graded to a lower grade.

Odour: A pleasing fishy smell is considered good quality. An annoying decomposed smell will result in the product being rejected and discarded.

Moisture Content: A hard and dry product with a moisture content of 10-30% is considered good quality. A soft product requires further drying otherwise the product should be rejected.

Spoilage: All products in the high grades which are spoiled or do not have the natural shape shall be down-graded to a lower grade. Any product that has any chemical spoilage will be rejected.

7. MONITORING(a) Provision of fisheries data

- (i) In accordance with the Fisheries Act (1994) licensed buyers obligated to submit data on catch and effort, as well as marketing, for the purpose of this management plan.
- (ii) Licensed buyers shall record all beche-de-mer bought from the fishermen, in a triplicate receipt form that will include the name of the fisherman, village of the fisherman (if he was fishing in the vicinity of his village), or the fishing area (if he was fishing outside of his village), the species, grade, weight and price. Where possible, the hours or days fishing for the products being sold will be recorded.
- (iii) The duplicate copy of the invoice/receipt shall be sent to the local Fisheries Office for entry into a computer database once every month.
- (iv) The receipt-book for catch monitoring established by the NFA for the National and Provincial Data Collection Project shall be used to monitor the catch and implement the TAC.

8. SPECIAL CONSIDERATION FOR TRADITIONAL RESOURCE OWNERS

- (a) Special consideration shall be given to the need to avoid adverse impact on traditional and small-scale fisheries. Where possible, traditional management measures shall be documented and submitted for gazettal notice by the National Minister for Fisheries after consultation with the traditional resource owners and the New Ireland Provincial Government.
- (b) Any traditional management areas which feature closed seasons and closed areas may be submitted to the New Ireland Provincial Government for screening. The Provincial Government may recommend appropriate gazette notices for existing traditional management areas. This shall consist of a gazette notice of the closed and open seasons and the definition of the area to be affected.
- (c) All traditional open seasons shall cease in the event of a province-wide closed season imposed by a gazette notice by the Minister for Fisheries.

9. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this Management Plan may be given in Notice through the National Gazette, on recommendation by the National Fisheries Board, when new information are obtained to enhance the objectives in paragraph 4.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1996.

D. RENTON,
Executive Director, National Fisheries Authority.

Approved this 23rd day of December, 1996.

T. PHILEMON,
Minister for Fisheries.

*Fisheries Act 1994MANUS PROVINCE BECHE-DE-MER FISHERY MANAGEMENT PLAN

THE NATIONAL FISHERIES AUTHORITY, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 39 of the Fisheries Act 1994 and all other powers it enabling, hereby draw up the following fishery management plan to take effect on and from the date of approval by the Minister.

1. CITATION:

This fishery plan may be cited as "The Manus Province Beche-de-mer Fishery Management Plan" (Management Plan).

2. INTERPRETATION:

This Management Plan, unless the contrary intention appears:

"Maximum sustainable yield" means the highest possible catch of beche-de-mer that may be taken from the management area with minimum effect on the ability of the stock to continue to replenish itself.

"Precautionary Approach" means setting down restrictions to control harvesting in absence of adequate scientific data. These restrictions include setting of TAC, seasonal and area closure and control fishing efforts.

"Total Allowable Catch (TAC)" means the set amount of catch that is allowed to be taken out of the fishery in any one year or season. The TAC is set at a safe level based on the average annual production or on stock assessment work.

"Traditional Management Practices" means methods for conservation of marine and coastal resources practiced by traditional indigenous of Manus Islands, that have been passed down from generations to generations. Usually, these methods are not formally recorded.

3. SCOPE OF THE MANUS BECHE-DE-MER FISHERY MANAGEMENT PLAN:

(a) The Management Plan area shall comprise all waters within the provincial boundary of Manus.

(b) The Management Plan shall include all species of beche-de-mer of the genus Holothuria, Thelenota, Actinopyga, Bohadschia.

4. MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES:

The broad objective of this management plan is to give effect to the Fisheries Management Principles set out in the Fisheries Act 1994; and specially:

(a) to manage the beche-de-mer fishery so that the size of the stock is moving towards the maximum sustain yield (MSY), and to maintain the fishery at an economically sustainable level.

(b) to safeguard the beche-de-mer fishery as a source of income for resource owners and people of Manus.

(c) to promote management practices in Manus Province and to promote the beche-de-mer fishery as a sustainable fishery.

(d) to encourage self regulation through sustainable traditional management practices.

(e) to manage the fishery at a precautionary approach.

5. PRECAUTIONARY APPROACH TO BECHE-DE-MER MANAGEMENT:

In accordance with UNCLOS management principles, precautionary shall apply in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) in the absence of adequate scientific data, NFA has taken into account the uncertainties and set the management measures to be applied.

(b) the National Fisheries Authority in collaboration with the Manus Province, shall develop systems to collect data, and to undertake research into conservation of the stock and the protection of habitats.

6. MANAGEMENT MEASURES:

The following management measures are to take effect immediately:-

(a) Licensing arrangements

(i) All beche-de-mer collected in Manus Province shall be exported from Manus. No product shall be moved to another Province for sale without clearance from the provincial Fisheries Authorities.

Manus Province Beche-de-mer Fishery Management Plan—continued

- (ii) Exporting and buying of beche-de-mer are restricted activities in Papua New Guinea. The issuing of licences shall be carried out with due consideration to the Manus Provincial Government.
- (iii) All buyers licences shall be endorsed for the buying of beche-de-mer throughout Manus Province with due regard to the resource owners.
- (iv) Export facility and storage facility licences shall be issued only for the specific handling of sedentary resources.
- (v) In the future, each applicant for a buyer's licence will be required to complete compulsory certified training to be sanctioned by the National Fisheries Authority. The content of the course will consist of the following:-
- (a) beche-de-mer processing procedures;
 - (b) quality control;
 - (c) basic beche-de-mer biology;
 - (d) beche-de-mer fishery management; and
 - (e) beche-de-mer marketing.
- (vi) The licensees shall be required to carry out extension services in the Province to ensure production of quality products and proper implementation of the fishery plan.
- (vii) The number of beche-de-mer exporters shall be limited to a maximum of 4 exporters. The current 6 exporters will be reduced over time, in consultation with the Manus Beche-de-mer Committee.
- (viii) The number of buyers endorsed to each exporter shall be limited to a maximum of 5 buyers endorsed to each exporter.
- (ix) A buyer's licence shall be issued to the person who will be physically buying products from the fishermen. The buyers licence is not transferable to other persons.
- (x) All licences shall be endorsed by the Manus Provincial Government before submission to the National Fisheries Authority Board for approval.
- (xi) All licence holders shall have their licence automatically terminated if they breach licence conditions or breach Fisheries Regulations or breach the provisions of the Manus Province Beche-de-mer Management Plan.
- (xii) All exporters shall export a minimum of 8 tonnes per year of beche-de-mer. Failure to do so may result in the non-renewal of the licence.
- (xiii) Resource owners may apply for a buyers licence to buy beche-de-mer from within traditional boundaries. The number of buyers will be determined after consultation with the resource owners. Biological and economic factors may be considered if the need arises to limit the number of buyers in the traditional boundaries.

(b) Size Limits

- (i) Specific to the Manus Beche-de-mer Management Plan, the new size restrictions for Manus are listed in Table 1. These size limits will only apply to beche-de-mer in Manus Province.
- (ii) Purchase and handling of undersized products shall result in the automatic termination of the buyers licence, the exporters licence, and fish storage licence upon successful prosecution.

- (b) Any traditional management areas which feature closed seasons and closed areas may be submitted to the Manus Provincial Government for screening. The community may recommend appropriate gazette notices for existing traditional management areas. This shall consist of a gazette notice of the closed and open seasons and the definition of the area to be affected.
- (c) All traditional open seasons shall cease in the event of a province-wide closed season imposed by a gazette notice by the Minister for Fisheries.

9. AMENDMENTS

The Minister shall from time to time give notice of any amendments as new information are obtained to enhance the objectives of this management plan.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1996.

D. RENTON,
Executive Director, National Fisheries Authority.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1996.

Approved this 23rd day of December, 1996.

T. PHILEMON,
Minister for Fisheries.

Fisheries Act 1994ORANGERIE BAY PRAWN FISHERY MANAGEMENT PLAN

THE NATIONAL FISHERIES AUTHORITY, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 39 of the Fisheries Act 1994 and all other powers it enabling, hereby draw up the following fishery management plan to take effect on and from the date of approval by the Minister.

1. CITATION

This fishery plan may be cited as the Orangerie Prawn Fishery Management Plan (the Fishery Plan).

2. REVOCATION OF FISHERY PLAN 1995

The Orangerie Bay Prawn Fishery Plan 1996 gazetted in the National Gazette No. G41 dated 27th April 1995 is revoked.

3. INTERPRETATION

This Fishery Management Plan, unless the contrary intention appears:

"Fishery Management Area" means the specified area to which the fishery plan relates.

"Growth Overfishing" means overfishing of prawns when prawns entering the fishing grounds for the first time by offshore migration from estuarine nursery areas are taken at an early stage before they have had sufficient time to grow and increase in size and value to full market price.

"Juvenile Recruitment" means the offshore migration of juvenile prawn from estuarine nursery areas (mangroves and sea grass) into the trawl grounds, where they are liable to industry harvest for the first time.

"The Three-Mile Zone" means the sea area which extends from the mean low-water mark seaward by 3 nautical miles (as per the National Seas Act).

"Timed Area Closure" means that a specified area is closed to fishing for a specified time.

"Traditional Resource Owners" means families with fishermen or single fishermen who have traditionally fished for both prawn and fin fish in nearshore coastal waters and are recognised by their people as having traditional ownership rights to the coastal prawn and fin fish resources.

4. SCOPE OF THE MANAGEMENT PLAN(a) Orangerie Bay Prawn Fishery Area

- (i) For the purpose of this Fishery Management Plan the geographical area covered by this management plan is the sea area comprising all the waters of the Orangerie Bay commencing on the west at the latitude 149 degrees 30 minutes and 00 seconds east, being the Central and Milne Bay Provincial Boundary to the east at latitude 150 degrees 5 minutes and 00 seconds east being the south-eastern side of Mullins Harbour; thence, extending from the mainland coastline seaward to 12 nautical miles from the mainland coastline (that is the territorial seas)

(b) The method of fishing covered by this management plan

- (i) For the purpose of this Fishery Management Plan the method of fishing shall be the method of single vessel otter trawl fishing; and the method of beam-trawl towed by dory or dinghy. Other methods are prohibited unless approved by the Minister for Fisheries.

5. OBJECTIVES OF THE MANAGEMENT PLAN

The broad objective of this management plan is to reinforce and give effect to the Fisheries management principles in the Fisheries Act (1994); and specifically:

- (a) to restore the prawn stocks and maintain them at a level capable of producing the maximum sustainable yield with consideration to environmental and economic factors;
- (b) to maximise the benefit to the operators, the immediate resource owners and the people of Milne Bay Province;
- (c) to adopt necessary and appropriate conservation and management measures for the reduction and utilisation of the by-catch; and
- (d) to maintain and promote participation of the immediate resource owners in the prawn industry; and
- (e) to monitor the interaction between the artisanal fishing activities and commercial fishing operations.
- (f) to manage the fishery with a precautionary approach.

Orangerie Bay Prawn Fishery Management Plan—continued6. PRECAUTIONARY APPROACHES TO FISHERIES MANAGEMENT

Consistent with regional and international management principles, a precautionary approach shall apply for the Orangerie Bay prawn fishery in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) In the absence of adequate scientific data, the National Fisheries Authority has taken into account any uncertainties with respect to the size and productivity of the stock, and the impact of fishing activities on associated and dependent species, and including climatic, oceanic, environmental and socio-economic conditions.
- (b) In managing the fishery, the National Fisheries Authority has considered the associated ecosystems in Orangerie Bay and Mullins Harbour. Data collection and research projects shall be developed to assess the impact of fishing on non-target species and their environment, adopt plans as necessary to ensure the conservation of non-target species, and consider the protection of any habitat of special concern.
- (c) The absence of adequate scientific information shall not be used as a reason for postponing or failing to take measures to protect the target and non-target species.
- (d) The permanent closure to commercial trawling in the Mullins Harbour is a precautionary approach, until further studies have been done to determine the relationship of the harbour to Orangerie Bay.

7. MANAGEMENT MEASURES

The following management measures which are to realise the objectives in 4.0 shall take effect immediately:

- (a) Licensing measures.
 - (i) the number of trawlers and licenses in the Orangerie Bay prawn fishery shall be restricted to two.
- (b) Gear restrictions
 - (i) Vessel size shall be no greater than 14.0 metres overall length (LOA) and engine size no greater than 200 British Horsepower.
 - (ii) Trawling shall be by method of otter trawl, with no more than 2 main nets and cod-end mesh size shall be no smaller than 50 mm.
 - (iii) The aggregate head rope (with mesh attached) for the main nets shall not exceed 40 metres.
 - (iv) Trawling shall only be carried out in daylight hours from 06.30 am to 18.30 pm.
 - (v) Trawling by boats operating from ports outside of Milne Bay Province shall not be permitted into this fisheries.
- (c) Total Allowable Catch (TAC)
 - (i) A total allowable catch (TAC) of 35 tonnes shall be enforced. Fishing operations shall cease when the TAC has been reached and shall not be resumed until 1st May of the following year.
- (d) Time Closure
 - (i) The area of Mullins Harbour shall be closed permanently to any form of prawn trawling, including commercial beach seining.

8. MONITORING(a) Provision of fisheries data

- (i) Pursuant to the Fisheries Act (1994), licensed operators are obliged to submit data on catch and effort, as well as marketing data, for the purpose of this management plan.

(b) Research programme

- (i) A scientific observer/research programme may be set up to monitor the fishery and to make recommendations for any relevant changes for improvement of the management plan to achieve the objectives in 4.0.
- (ii) Routine test fishing may be carried out during the closure in collaboration and under the supervision of the National Fisheries Authority to estimate the stock levels.

Orangerie Bay Prawn Fishery Management Plan—continued9. SPECIAL CONSIDERATION FOR TRADITIONAL RESOURCE OWNERS

- (a) Special consideration should be given to the need to avoid adverse impact on subsistence and small-scale commercial fisheries.
- (b) Ownership of the nearshore fisheries resources including the Mullins Harbour, by traditional resource owners is recognised.
- (c) Where possible, effort shall be made to document and promote traditional conservation and management measures in the three-mile zone where small-scale prawn trawling operations may be developed, in order to enhance the conservation and management practices of the fisheries resources within the traditional waters.
- (d) Vessels based in ports outside of Milne Bay Province shall not be permitted into the fishery.

10. AMENDMENTS

The Minister shall from time to time give notice of any amendments as new information are obtained to enhance the objectives of this management plan.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1996.

D. RENTON,
Director, National Fisheries Authority.

Approved this 23rd day of December, 1996.

T. PHILEMON,
Minister for Fisheries.

*Fisheries Act 1994GULF OF PAPUA PRAWN FISHERY MANAGEMENT PLAN

THE NATIONAL FISHERIES AUTHORITY, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 39 of the Fisheries Act 1994 and all other powers it enabling, hereby draw up the following fishery management plan to take effect on and from the date of approval by the Minister.

1. CITATION

This plan may be cited as the Gulf of Papua Prawn Fishery Management Plan (the Fishery Plan).

2. REVOCATION OF FISHERY PLAN 1996

The Gulf of Papua Prawn Fishery Plan 1996 (the Fishery Plan 1996) gazetted in the National Gazette No. G1 dated 4th January 1996 is revoked.

3. INTERPRETATION

This Fishery Management Plan, unless the contrary intention appears:

"Fishery Management Area" means the specified area to which the fishery plan relates.

"Growth Overfishing" means overfishing of prawns when prawns entering the fishing grounds for the first time by offshore migration from estuarine nursery areas are taken at an early stage before they have had sufficient time to grow and increase in value to full market price.

"Industrial Fishery" refers to the fishery outside of the three-mile zone, other than dories and dinghies, where vessels operate twin or quad rigged otter trawl gear.

"Juvenile Recruitment" means the offshore migration of juvenile prawns from estuarine nursery areas (mangroves and sea grass) into the trawl (fishing) grounds, where they are liable to industry harvest for the first time.

"Small-scale fishery" refers to the small-scale prawn trawling operation employing dories and dinghies which tow a beam trawl. This shall be the type of operation to be allowed within the three-mile zone.

"Three-Mile Zone" refers to the sea area which extends from the mean high-water mark seaward by three nautical miles (as per the National Seas Act). Industrial trawling is prohibited within the three-mile zone.

"Three-mile limit" is the seaward boundary of the three-mile zone and extends from Parama Island to the border with of the Gulf and Central Provinces.

"Timed Area Closure" means that a specified area is closed to fishing for a specified time.

"Traditional Resource Owners" means families with fishermen or single fishermen who have traditionally fished for both prawn and fin fish in nearshore coastal waters and are recognised by their people as having traditional ownership rights to the coastal prawn and fin fish resources.

4. SCOPE OF THE FISHERY PLAN

(a) The geographical area covered by this fishery plan is the sea area that is bounded as follows:

- (i) The northern boundary is the coastline of Papua New Guinea from Parama Island (at the southern limit of the estuary of the River Fly) to the border of Central and Gulf Provinces.
- (ii) The southern boundary is the 9 degree of latitude line, which passes through Parama Island in the west, and meets the border of Central and Gulf Provinces in the east.
- (iii) The eastern boundary is the border of Central and Gulf Provinces.

(b) This fishery plan shall cover all species of the Family Penaeidae including: the principle species white banana prawn (Penaeus merguensis); the Indian banana prawn (penaeus indicus); the (giant) black tiger prawn (penaeus monodon); the brown tiger prawn (penaeus semisulcatus); and including the lesser value endeavour species, Metapenaeus spp.

(c) The fishery plan covers the method of single vessel otter trawl fishing; and the method of beam-trawl towed by a dory or dinghy. Other methods are prohibited unless approved by the National Fisheries Board.

5. OBJECTIVES OF THE FISHERY PLAN

The broad objective of this fishery plan is to reinforce and give effect to the fisheries management principles in the Fisheries Act (1994); and specifically:

- (a) to manage the fishery so that the stock size tends towards that which will give the maximum sustainable yield, chiefly through control of fishing effort;
- (b) provision of sustainable economic benefit through prevention of growth overfishing on the principle species, the banana and tiger, in order to maximise economic returns;
- (c) conservation of stocks of demersal fish species caught as by-catch;
- (d) promotion of sustainable fisheries development practices;
- (e) development of controlled sustainable small-scale fishery development of the prawn and associated fin-fish resources within selected areas of the three-mile zone, for the participation and benefit of the traditional resource owners; and
- (f) to manage the fishery with a precautionary approach.

6. PRECAUTIONARY APPROACHES TO FISHERIES MANAGEMENT

Consistent with regional and international management principles, a precautionary approach shall apply for the Gulf of Papua prawn fishery in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) In the absence of adequate scientific data, the National Fisheries Authority has taken into account any uncertainties with respect to the size and productivity of the stock, and the impact of fishing activities on associated and dependent species, and including climatic, oceanic, environmental and socio-economic conditions.
- (b) In managing the fishery, the National Fisheries Authority has considered the associated ecosystems in Gulf of Papua. Data collection and research projects shall be established to assess the impact of fishing on non-target species and their environment, adopt plans as necessary to ensure the conservation of non-target species, and consider the protection of any habitat of special concern.
- (c) The absence of adequate scientific information shall not be used as a reason for postponing or failing to take measures to protect the target and non-target.
- (d) The precautionary approach taken in controlling of fishing effort include the recommendation to maintain the number of vessels at 14.

Gulf of Papua Prawn Fishery Management Plan—continued7. MANAGEMENT MEASURES AND CONDITIONS OF THE FISHERY PLAN

The following management measures which are to realise the objectives in paragraph 5 are to take effect immediately:

(a) Licensing arrangements

- (i) the number of licences for the industrial fishery shall be 14.
- (ii) Preference shall be given to licence applications from resource owners for new licences. Non-citizen companies or individuals shall not be granted licences.
- (iii) Two trawlers of the PNG Torres Strait Fishery based out of Daru, Western Province, shall have endorsed licence to operate in the Fly/Bamu fishing zone. Specifications of these vessels shall be in accordance with PNG Torres Strait Prawn Fishery Plan.
- (iv) Licence shall be required for any dory or dinghy operating a beam trawl in the inshore small-scale fishery (when a fishery is in place). Specifications for such vessel and specific area of operation shall be approved by the National Fisheries Board.
- (v) there shall be a maximum of 10 licences for small-scale commercial dories or dinghies fishing by beam trawl operating in the inshore small-scale fishery.

(b) Fishing restrictions(i) The gear restrictions for the industrial fishery shall be as follows:*A. The taking of penaeid prawn is prohibited at all times by the National Regulations on Control of Prawn Fishing in Papua New Guinea (National Gazette No. G41 27th April, 1996);

- by boats owned by non-citizen companies or individuals;
- by boats whose registry is offshore;
- by boats exceeding 30 metres overall length (LOA) according to Papua New Guinea registered survey length;
- by boats with main engines with shaft power exceeding 410 kilowatts or 550 horse power, as set out in the manufacturer's specifications;
- by method of more than four (4) main nets and one (1) try net towed at the same time;
- by a method whereby the aggregate head rope (with mesh attached) for the main nets exceeds 60 metres, and one (1) try net exceeds 6m head line;
- by method whereby the head line of any one single main net exceeds 30 metres;
- by a method whereby the meshes for all nets, when measured diagonally stretched from knot to knot, are less than 50 millimetres both on the body and cod end;
- by method using an otter board that is more than five (5) square metres in area, per board.
- by beam trawl of greater than 6 metres beam length.

(ii) The gear restriction for small-scale fishery employing beam trawl towed by dory or dinghy, shall be as follows:B. The taking of penaeid prawns is prohibited at all times:

- by method where the width of all beam trawls exceeds four (4) metres; and
- by methods whereby the meshes of all nets when measured from knot to knot, are less than 50 millimetres (2.0 inches); and
- by method of beam trawl that does not incorporate a fish escape panel at the neck of the cod-end, consisting of one (1) metre wide panel of net of 50 millimetres (2.0 inches) mesh laid crosswise and which forms the body of the net at the neck of the cod-end.

(c) There shall be no restriction on the species of prawn caught.(d) Timed area closures

There shall be two timed area closures as follows:

(i) Closure 1:

Trawl Grounds from Iokea to Cape Blackwood (Area 1) from 1st December to 31st March.

Gulf of Papua Prawn Fishery Management Plan—continued(ii) Boundaries for Area 1:

The boundaries are as detailed below:

Western Boundary of Area 1 — The western boundary shall be the line 144 degrees 28 minutes 0 seconds east (144° 28' 00"E) extending north to south from Cape Blackwood to the latitude 8 degrees 24 minutes 42 seconds south (08° 24'42"S).

Southern Boundary of Area 1

The southern boundary shall be the line of latitude 8 degrees 24 minutes 42 seconds south (08° 24'42" S) extending west to east from the termination of the western boundary to the coast at the village of Iokea.

Northern and Eastern Boundary of Area 1

The northern and eastern boundary shall be the coast from the southern point of Cape Blackwood to Iokea village in the east.

(iii) Closure 2:

Trawl grounds from Cape Cupola to Cape Blackwood from 1st May to 30th June for Area.

(iv) Boundaries of Area 2

As in Area 1, except that there will be an eastern boundary as follows:

The north-south line from the point 8 degrees 24 minutes 42 seconds south, 145 degrees 50 minutes 0 seconds east (8° 24' 42" S, 145° 50' 00" E) to Cape Cupola.

(v) Industrial otter trawling and small-scale beam trawling shall be prohibited in these areas during the periods specified.

(e) Industrial fishing is prohibited at all within the three-mile zone from Parama Island to the border of the Gulf and Central Provinces.

(f) Marketing shall continue to be based on the standards established by the relevant authorities.

(g) The prawn operators shall be required to submit to the National Fisheries Authority:

(i) catch and effort data on the by-catch including non-fish species;

(ii) all by-catch shall be recorded;

(iii) all live mammals and turtles shall be returned to the sea;

(iv) dead mammals and turtles may be retained and recorded;

(v) removing of fins from sharks and returning them to sea alive is prohibited

(h) Vessel Tracking System and Surveillance

(i) Upon the recommendation of the PNG National Fisheries Authority, all prawn fishing vessels shall be required to carry tracking devices in the future, to facilitate the fishery plan and increase safety in navigation.

(ii) Officer of the National Fisheries Authority and Officer of the Gulf Province Division of Fisheries shall be placed at random on board licensed prawn trawlers to undertake surveillance and research.

8. MONITORING

(a) In accordance with Fisheries Act (1994), licensed operators are obliged to submit data on catch and effort, as well as marketing data, for the purpose of this fishery plan. The National Fisheries Authority shall supply log-books for entry of catch and effort data.

(b) A scientific observer/research programme mutually agreed to by the industry and NFA may be set up to monitor the fishery and to make recommendations for any relevant changes for improvement of the fishery plan to achieve the objectives in paragraph 5. The industry may be requested to provide logistic support and other form of assistance to implementing the research programme in relation to prawns as well as other alternate fisheries resources in the Gulf of Papua.

9. SPECIAL CONSIDERATION FOR TRADITIONAL RESOURCE OWNERS

(a) Special consideration should be given to the need to avoid adverse impact on subsistence and small-scale commercial fisheries.

(b) Ownership of the nearshore fisheries resources (i.e. resources inside the three-mile limit) by traditional resource owners is recognised.

(c) Where possible, effort shall be made to document and promote traditional conservation and management measures in the three-mile zone where small-scale prawn trawling operations may be developed, in order to enhance the conservation and management practices of the fisheries resources within the traditional waters.

- (d) Preference will be given to licence applications from traditional resource owners, both for fishing by method of industrial trawling and fishing employing the method of beam trawl towed by dory or dinghy.
- (e) The National Fisheries Authority in collaboration with the industry and provincial authorities, shall work towards facilitation and establishment of small-scale fisheries development of the prawn and associated fin-fish resources within certain parts of the three-mile zone.

10. AMENDMENTS

Any amendments to this fishery plan may be made by giving notice through the National Gazette on recommendation from the National Fisheries Board, as new information are obtained to enhance the objectives of the fishery plan.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1996.

D. RENTON,
Director, National Fisheries Authority.

Approved this 23rd day of December, 1996.

Land Act (Chapter 185)

CERTIFICATE OF NON-APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 16

I, John A. Painap, OBE., a Delegate of the Minister for Lands, by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 16(7) of the Land Act (Chapter 185), and all other powers me enabling, hereby certify that there are special reasons why Section 16 of that Act relating to the acquisition of land by compulsory process should not apply to the land described in the Schedule, namely that all of those persons believed to have an interest by custom in the ownership of the subject land have consented to the acquisition of the land by the State and by compulsory process given that time limitations on the availability of fill material for reclamation purposes preclude any and all other means whereby the customary land owners could secure title over the subject land (ie. the Land Tenure Conversion Act) and where, subsequent upon the State's acquisition of the land, the customary land owners interest will be converted to shareholding in a corporate entity which will seek the grant of a Business (Commercial) Lease over the land and thence enter into a sublease agreement on terms to the mutual satisfaction of all parties including those who will effect the reclamation of the land all in accordance with the conditional approval given to the project (ie. Application No. PP04 392/96) at Meeting No. 6/96 of the National Capital District Physical Planning Board which convened on 25th September, 1996.

SCHEDULE
