Banks and Financial Institutions Act 2000

PNG MICROFINANCE LIMITED-LICENSED FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

THE Bank of Papua New Guinea acting under Section 10 of the Banks and Financial Institutions Act 2000 (the "Act") and all other powers enabling it, grants a licence to PNG Microfinance Limited as a licensed financial institution subject to the conditions set out below:

CONDITIONS

1. The licence holder must at all times conduct its business with integrity and professional skills appropriate to the nature and scale of, and the risks inherent in its activities.
2. The licence holder must at all times conduct its business in a prudent manner and in total compliance with all the prudential standards and directives issued by the Bank from time to time.
3. The licence holder's capital resources must at all times be satisfactory to the Bank.
4. The licence holder must at all times maintain adequate liquidity, having regard to the relationship between its actual and contingent liabilities, to the times at which those liabilities will or may fall due and its assets mature and to any other relevant factors.
5. The licence holder must at all times make adequate provision for depreciation or diminution in the value of its assets (including provisions for bad or doubtful debts), for liabilities which will or may fall to be discharged by it and for losses which will or may incur.
6. The licence holder must take appropriate steps to limit the risk of loss of the assets of the company.

7. The licence holder must at all times maintain adequate accounting and other records of its business and adequate systems of control of its business and records, sufficient to enable the business of the licence holder to be prudently managed and the licence holder to comply with the duties imposed on it by or under the Act.
8. The licence holder must comply with all relevant financial requirements under the Act, including requirements as to the payment of annual licence fees and minimum capital requirements under the Act.
9. The licence holder must give to the Bank, by no later than 2 months after this licence takes effect, all documented and adopted systems and procedures necessary for running a viable financial institution.
10. The licence holder must ensure that a person does not become a director or a secretary of the licence holder without the prior written approval of the Bank.
11. The licence holder must ensure that a person does not become an officer or employee of the licence holder with responsibilities for the operation of the company unless the officer or employee is approved by the Bank, or is within a class approved by the Bank.
12. The licence holder must ensure that a person is not appointed to a particular office or position with the licence holder, and does not continue to hold a particular office or position with the licence holder, if the Bank has notified the licence holder in writing that the person is not a fit and proper person to hold that office or position. For this purpose, the Bank may notify a class of offices or positions. In this condition, "office or position" includes the office or position of director or employee of the licence holder.
13. Except for the established branches in Kiunga and Tabubil, and head office operations in Port Moresby, all new branches to be opened must be in accordance with Section 61 of the Act. Before opening a branch, a due diligence must be undertaken to establish the feasibility of the proposed branch.
14. The licence holder must report to the Bank any material deviation to the revised business plan during the 5 year period, explaining fully, the factors contributing to these changes.
