National AID Council Secretariat

“Together Striving to Prevent and Control HIV/AIDS in Papua New Guinea”BACKGROUND

NATIONAL AIDS Council (NAC) was established in 1997 by the National AIDS Council Act of 1997. The Act mandated NAC to implement the seven focus areas of the National Strategic Plan (NSP) on HIV & AIDS. Since its inception, NAC through the National AIDS Council Secretariat has worked in partnership with donor and development partners, various stakeholders both national and international in a multi-sectoral approach to counter the HIV & AIDS epidemic in PNG within the frame work of the NSP.

Backgropund—continued

The NAC Act 1997 is now being superseded by the NAC Amendment Act 2007 and has changed the implementing role of NAC through the National AIDS Council Secretariat to co-ordination. The Act also brings about changes in the composition of the Council membership and chairmanship. Pursuant to changes under the Amendment Act 2007, nominations are been called for the formation of a new Council.
