16. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any qualifying person shall subject to such conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the Minister, be eligible for a housing benefit by way of a loan to assist him in the building, purchase, improvement or repair of a house to be used as a residence, or for such other purposes connected with housing.

(2) The Minister may from time to time, by Order prescribe the categories or classes of qualifying persons as well as the terms and conditions under which such benefits may be granted.

PART IV LOANS, SECURITY AND RECOVERIES

17. No loan shall be granted by the Corporation to any person unless the Board is satisfied -

Loans granted only in certain circumstances.

- (a) that he is worthy of credit up to the amount of such loan;
- (b) that such amount is secured by adequate security; or
- (c) in the case of a housing project or scheme to which such amount is to be applied, is financially sound.

18. The rate of interest payable on any loan granted to any borrower shall be at such rate as may from time to time be determined by the Board, with the approval of the Minister, and different rates of interest may be charged for different categories or classes of loans so as to ensure that persons in receipt of income below limits which may be set by the Board with the approval of the Minister pay lower rates than persons in receipt of incomes at or above those limits.

Rates of interest.

19. Where default is made in the payment of any sum due on any loan granted by the Corporation on the mortgage of movable or immovable property, whether the sum is due on account of principal or interest or both, default shall be deemed to have been in respect of the portion that remains unpaid on that loan and the interest due thereon up to date of default; and the Board may in its discretion take action for recovery in accordance with PART XI of the Land and Titles Act.

Default of payment.

20. Subject to the provisions of sections 21, 22 and subsection (5) of section 23 every loan shall be repaid to the Corporation in accordance with the terms and conditions under which such loan was made and the moneys so paid shall thereupon be taken into the accounts of the Corporation.

Repayment of loans.

Cap. 55.

Suspension of payment of principal and interest and power to extend time, compound or release.

21. The Corporation, with the approval of the Minister may, subject to such terms and conditions it deems fit -

- (a) postpone, for any time not exceeding five years, the payment of any sum due for principal and interest or for either principal or interest in respect of a loan made; or
- (b) from time to time extend the period for the repayment of any loan, or compound or release any loan or part thereof.

Payment of loan before due date.

22. The Corporation may at any time accept payment of the whole or any part of the amount representing the principal of a loan and interest thereon, before the time when such payment is due, upon such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

Accounts and Audit.

23. (1) The Corporation shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation to its business and shall prepare annually a statement of accounts in a form satisfactory to the Minister, being a form which conforms with established accounting principles.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed by the Corporation and approved by the Auditor General.

(3) The Corporation shall on receipt of the audited statement of accounts submit to the Minister a copy of such statement together with any report made by the auditor.

(4) The Minister shall cause a copy of the audited annual statement of accounts together with the auditor's report to be laid before the National Parliament.

(5) The Corporation may write off bad debts.

Annual reports.

24. (1) The Board shall in each year submit to the Minister a report of its activities during the previous year.

(2) The Minister shall lay before the National Parliament a copy of the annual report.

25. (1) The income and revenue of the Corporation shall not be subject to taxation under any law.

Exemption from taxation and stamp duty.

(2) All instruments executed by or on behalf of the Corporation shall be exempt from stamp duty.

PART V LOAN ADMINISTRATION

26. Where the Corporation has made a loan under the provisions of section 17, it may from time to time -

Examination of Loan application.

- (a) make or cause to be made, such arrangement as may be necessary (including direct payment to suppliers or contractors and examination of materials supplied and work done) to ensure that the loan is being applied to the purposes for which it was made;
- (b) require the borrower to give immediately or periodically such information to the Corporation it may require and the borrower shall comply with the requirements of the Corporation.

27. Whereupon any examination made pursuant to the provisions of section 26 it appears to the Corporation that any sum, being either the whole or any part of the loan made by the Corporation has not been applied to the purpose for which the loan was made, it may by notice in writing addressed to the borrower, require that such sum be, within the time specified in the notice, applied to such purpose, or that such sum, together with any interest due thereon on the date of the notice be repaid, and any sum with interest thereon so required to be repaid shall thereupon become a debt due to the Corporation.

Corporation may serve notice in case of mis-application of loan.

28. The Board may designate such number of its employees as Inspectors as it thinks necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

Designation of Inspectors.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

Penalty for misapplication of loan.

29. Any person who knowingly applies any loan or part thereof granted to him under the provisions of this Act to any purpose other than that authorised by the Corporation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

False statements.

30. Any borrower who wilfully fails to disclose any material information within his knowledge, or who wilfully makes any statement which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Secrecy.

31. (1) All members of the Board and employees of the Corporation shall not either directly or indirectly, except in the performance of a duty under or in connection with this Act, divulge or communicate to any person, any information concerning the affairs of the Corporation.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Transfer or disposal of undertakings or

32. (1) The Corporation may, by agreement made with any Ministry, statutory body or other enterprise and with the approval of the Minister, transfer to any such Ministry, statutory body or other enterprise any undertaking, operation or any part thereof, or property upon such terms as may be specified by the agreement.

(2) Every agreement made under this section providing for the transfer of any undertaking, operation or property shall set out the terms on which the transfer is to be made and may provide for the payment of such amount in consideration of the transfer in such manner as may be so specified.

33. (1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Act.

Regulations.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations in respect of the following matters -

- (a) the manner of application for shares of the Corporation, the registration of holders of such shares, the issue and renewal of share certificates, the transfer of such shares and any other matter connected with, or incidental to, the aforesaid matters relating to shares;
- (b) the form of debentures, the rate of interest payable thereon, the time or times at which and the manner in which debentures are to be redeemed, the transfer of debentures and any other matter connected with, or incidental to, the aforesaid matters relating to debentures;
- (c) prescribing the forms of mortgages, charges and other instruments;
- (d) prescribing the form of bonds or promissory notes and the terms and conditions, including maturities and interest rates; and
