INCOME TAX ACT 2007

(Section 93)

INCOME TAX REGULATIONS 2008

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 93 of the Income Tax Act 2007, the Chief Commissioner of Revenue, with the consent of Cabinet, makes the following regulations –

1 Short title and Commencement

- (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Income Tax Regulations 2008.
- (2) These Regulations shall come into force on the same day as the Income Tax Act 2007.

2 Interpretation

- (1) In these Regulations –
 - “Act” means the Income Tax Act 2007;
 - “employee” means a person receiving an amount from which tax is required to be withheld under Division 4 of Part 8 of the Act;
 - “employer” means a person required to withhold an amount from a payment under Division 4 of Part 8 of the Act;
 - “fiscal year” means the period of twelve months ending on 30th June;
 - “payment period” means if the employee is paid –
 - (a) monthly, a calendar month;
 - (b) fortnightly, a fortnight; or
 - (c) weekly, a week;
 - “arm’s length standard” means a person dealing at arm’s length with a person who is not an associate;

“arm’s length result” means a result that would have been realised if uncontrolled persons had engaged in the same transaction under the same conditions;

“comparable uncontrolled transaction” in relation to a controlled transaction, means an uncontrolled transaction that satisfies one of the following conditions -

- (a) the differences if any, between the two transactions or between persons undertaking the transactions do not materially affect the price in the open market, the resale gross margin, or the cost plus mark up, as the case may be; or
- (b) if the differences referred to in paragraph (a) do materially affect the price in the open market, the resale price margin, or the cost plus mark up, reasonably accurate adjustments can be made to eliminate the material effects of such differences;

“controlled transaction” means a transaction between associates;

“cost plus mark up” has the meaning in regulation 11(2)(b);

“resale gross margin” means the resale price minus a gross margin;

“resale price” means the price that a product purchased from an associate has been sold to a person who is not an associate;

“transaction” means any sale, assignment, lease, licence, loan, contribution, right to use property, or performance of services;

“uncontrolled persons” means persons who are not associates; and “uncontrolled transaction” means a transaction between uncontrolled persons.

- (2) All other expressions used but not defined in these Regulations have the meaning assigned to them under the Act.

3. Approved retirement fund

- (1) In this regulation -

“dependant”, in relation to a member of a fund, means the spouse and any child of the member; and “employer” includes an associate of an employer.

- (2) The following shall be approved retirement funds for the purposes of the Act –

- (a) an approved employer fund; and
- (b) an approved self-provided fund.

- (3) A fund shall be an approved employer fund for a fiscal year if –

- (a) the fund is a provident, benefit, or retirement fund;
- (b) the fund is an indefinitely continuing fund;
- (c) the fund was established and maintained by an employer solely for either or both of the following purposes –
 - (i) the provision of benefits for employees of the employer on retirement or in other circumstances approved by the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (ii) the provision of benefits for dependants of employees on the death of the employee;
- (d) the employer contributed to the fund in the year in respect of each employee who is a member of the fund;
- (e) the fund is not authorised to accept contributions, and did not accept contributions in the year, from any person other than the employer and employees of the employer;
- (f) the employee has been fully informed of his rights to receive benefits from the fund;
- (g) the rights of employees and dependants to receive benefits from the fund in respect of their contributions and income accruing thereon are fully secured;
- (h) the minimum service period for the vesting of benefits in respect of employer contributions is 3 years;
- (i) if an employee’s right to receive benefits in respect of employer contributions ceases, those benefits are allocated to the other employees on any reasonable basis;
- (j) at all times in the year, the cost of loans to, and investment assets in, the employer does not exceed ten per cent of the cost of all assets;
- (k) the benefits to which employees or dependants are entitled are not excessive having regard to –
 - (i) the remuneration paid to the employee;
 - (ii) the period of service; and
 - (iii) other benefits that may be provided to the employee by the employer; and the value of the fund’s assets is not in excess of the amount necessary to provide benefits having regard to contributions reasonably expected to be made to, and income reasonably expected to be earned by, the fund in succeeding years.

- (4) A fund shall be an approved self-provided fund for a fiscal year if –

- (a) the tax is imposed in respect of events that would result in the derivation of income, gains, or profits under the Act; and
- (b) the taxable amount is computed by subtracting from gross income derived any significant expenditures and the depreciation or amortisation of capital expenditures applicable to such income.

(7) The following taxes are substantially equivalent to the income tax imposed under the Act –

- (a) a withholding tax imposed on dividends, interest, royalties, or technical services fees payable to non-residents as a final tax on that income; and
- (b) a tax imposed on the gross receipts derived by a non-resident person operating a ship or aircraft.

7. Foreign tax credit

- (1) This regulation shall apply for the purposes of sections 62 of the Act, which provide for the allowance of a foreign tax credit.
- (2) Subject to sub-regulation (3), a resident person shall be allowed a foreign tax credit under section 62 only if the person provides the Chief Commissioner with the following documentation –
 - (a) when the foreign tax has been deducted at source, a declaration by the employer of the income that tax has been deducted and a certified copy of the receipt that the employer has received from the foreign tax authority for the deducted tax; or
 - (b) in any other case, the original or certified copy of the receipt that the person has received from the foreign tax authority for the tax paid.
- (3) If a resident person is unable to provide the documentation referred to in sub-regulation (2)(a), the Chief Commissioner may accept such secondary evidence of the payment of the tax as the Chief Commissioner determines.

8. Arm's length standard

- (1) In determining the income of a person from a transaction with an associate, the standard to be applied by the Chief Commissioner shall apply the arm's length standard.
- (2) A controlled transaction meets the arm's length standard if the result of the transaction is consistent with the arm's length result.

(11) A decision by the Chief Commissioner on an application under sub-regulation (6) or to withdraw a certification under sub-regulation (10) is a taxation decision for the purposes of the Revenue Services Administration Act 2002.

(12) A trustee or manager of a fund who fails to notify the Chief Commissioner of a change as required under sub-regulation (9) commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

4. Resident Individual

- (1) This regulation shall apply for the purposes of section 4 (3) of the Act, which provides for the determination of individuals as resident individuals.
- (2) Subject to sub-regulation (3), in computing the number of days an individual is present in Tonga in a fiscal year for the purposes of section 4 (3) (b) of the Act –
 - (a) a part of a day that an individual is present in Tonga (including the day of arrival in, and the day of departure from, Tonga) shall count as a whole day of such presence; and
 - (b) the following days in which an individual is wholly or partly present in Tonga shall count as a whole day of such presence –
 - (i) a public holiday;
 - (ii) a day of leave, including sick leave;
 - (iii) a day in which the individual's activity in Tonga is interrupted because of a strike, lock-out, delay in the receipt of supplies, adverse weather conditions, or seasonal factors; and
 - (iv) a day spent by the individual on holiday in Tonga before, during, or after any activity conducted by the individual in Tonga.
 - (3) A day or part of a day when an individual is in Tonga solely by reason of being in transit between two different places outside Tonga shall not count as a day present in Tonga.

5. Short-term insurance business

- (1) In this regulation, “short-term insurance” means any insurance other than life insurance.
- (2) The gross income for a fiscal year of a resident company conducting a short-term insurance business shall include –

- (a) the gross premiums derived by the company in the year for the insurance of any risk, including premiums on reinsurance but not including premiums returned to the insured;
 - (b) any commission or expense allowance derived from the reinsurance of any risk and any income derived from investment of premiums; and
- the amount of the company's reserve for unexpired risks deducted in the previous fiscal year under sub-regulation (3)(c).
- (3) The deductions for a fiscal year allowed to a resident company conducting a short-term insurance business shall include -
- (a) the amount of the claims admitted by the company in the year less any amount recovered or recoverable under any contract of re-insurance, guarantee, security, or indemnity;
 - (b) the amount of agency expenses incurred by the company in the year; and
 - (c) the balance of the company's reserve for unexpired risks at the percentage adopted by the company as at the end of the year.
- (4) The gross income for a fiscal year of a non-resident company conducting a short term insurance business shall include -
- (a) the gross premiums derived by the company in the year for the insurance of any risk in Tonga, including premiums on reinsurance but not including premiums returned to the insured;
 - (b) any commission or expense allowance derived from the reinsurance of any risk in Tonga and any income derived from investment of premiums referred in paragraph (a); and
 - (c) the amount of the company's reserve for unexpired risks deducted in the previous fiscal year under sub-regulation (5)(c).
- (5) The deductions allowed to a non-resident company conducting a short-term insurance business shall include -
- (a) the amount of the claims admitted by the company in the year in respect of insured risks in Tonga less any amount recovered or recoverable under any contract of re-insurance, guarantee, security, or indemnity;
 - (b) the amount of agency expenses incurred by the company in Tonga in the year; and
 - (c) the balance of the company's reserve for unexpired risks in Tonga at the percentage adopted by the company as at the end of the year.

- ## 6. Foreign income tax
- (1) In this regulation,
- "economic benefit" includes –
- (a) any property;
 - (b) any service;
 - (c) any fee or other payment;
 - (d) the right to use or acquire copyrights, patents, or other intellectual or industrial property;
 - (e) the right to extract natural resources owned or controlled by the government of a foreign country; or
 - (f) any reduction or discharge of a contractual obligation; and
- "specific economic benefit", in relation to a foreign country, means an economic benefit that is not available on substantially the same terms –
- (a) to all persons subject to the income tax generally imposed by the foreign country; or
 - (b) if there is no generally imposed income tax, the population of the country in general.
- (2) This regulation shall apply for the purposes of sections 61 and 62 of the Act, which provide resident persons with relief from international double taxation.
- (3) A foreign levy shall be a foreign income tax if the following conditions are satisfied –
- (a) a foreign country imposes the levy;
 - (b) the levy is a tax; and
 - (c) the tax is substantially equivalent to the income tax imposed by the Act.
- (4) Subject to sub-regulation (5), a foreign levy shall be a tax if it requires a compulsory payment pursuant to the authority of the foreign country to impose taxes, other than a penalty, fine, interest, or similar obligation.
- (5) A foreign levy shall not be a tax to the extent to which a person subject to the levy receives or is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, a specific economic benefit from the foreign country in exchange for payment pursuant to the levy.
- (6) Subject to sub-regulation (7), a tax is substantially equivalent to the income tax imposed under the Act if the following conditions are satisfied –

C is the number of payment periods remaining in the fiscal year, including the current period.

(3) The annualised employment income of an employee for a fiscal year for the purposes of component A of the formula in sub-regulation (2) shall be computed in accordance with the following formula –

$$(\mathbf{D} + \mathbf{E}) \times \mathbf{F}/\mathbf{G}$$

where –

D is the amount of employment income paid by the employer to the employee in the current payment period;

E is the amount of employment income paid by the employer to the employee in the previous payment periods in the fiscal year;

F is the number of payment periods in the fiscal year; and

G is the number of completed payment periods in the fiscal year, including the current period.

(4) An employer shall notify the Chief Commissioner, in writing –

- (a) if the employer pays employment income to an employee on a basis other than monthly, fortnightly, or weekly; or
- (b) if the payment period of an employee changes during the fiscal year.

(5) If an employer has notified the Chief Commissioner under sub-regulation (4), the Chief Commissioner shall advise the employer, by notice in writing, of the amount of tax to be withheld by the employer from the employment income paid by the employer to the employee and the employer shall withhold tax accordingly.

(6) If an employee has not furnished an employer with an employee declaration, the amount of tax to be withheld by the employer from a payment of employment income to the employee for any period is computed according to the following formula –

$$\mathbf{H} \times \mathbf{J}$$

where –

H is the highest marginal rate specified in the rates of tax approved by His Majesty in Council by order; and

J is the amount of employment income paid to the employee.

(3) Subject to sub-regulation (6), the following methods shall apply for the purposes of determining an arm's length result -

- (a) the comparable uncontrolled price method;
- (b) the resale price method;
- (c) the cost plus method; or
- (d) the profit split method.

(4) The method in sub-regulation (3)(d) shall apply only if the methods in sub-regulation (3)(a), (b) and (c) cannot be reliably applied.

(5) As between paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of sub-regulation (3), the method that, having regard to all the facts and circumstances, provides the most reliable measure of the arm's length result shall be applied.

(6) If the arm's length result cannot be reliably determined under one of the methods in sub-regulation (3), the Chief Commissioner may use any method, including a profit-based method, to determine the arm's length result provided it is consistent with the arm's length standard.

9. Comparable uncontrolled price method

The comparable uncontrolled price method determines whether the amount charged in a controlled transaction gives rise to an arm's length result by reference to the amount charged in a comparable uncontrolled transaction.

10. Resale price method

(1) The resale price method determines whether the amount charged in a controlled transaction gives rise to an arm's length result by reference to the resale gross margin realised in a comparable uncontrolled transaction.

(2) The following steps shall apply in determining the arm's length result under the resale price method -

- (a) determine the resale price;
- (b) from the resale gross margin representing the amount that covers the person's selling and other operating expenses and, in light of the functions performed taking into account assets used and risks assumed, make an appropriate profit; then
- (c) from that amount is subtracted any other costs associated with the purchase of the product, such as customs duty; and
- (d) the amount remaining is the arm's length result.

(3) The resale gross margin of a person in a controlled transaction may be determined by reference to -

- (a) the resale gross margin that the person earns on products purchased and sold in a comparable uncontrolled transaction; or
- (b) the resale gross margin that an independent person earns in a comparable uncontrolled transaction.

11. Cost plus method

- (1) The cost plus method determines whether the amount charged in a controlled transaction gives rise to an arm's length result by reference to the cost plus mark up realised in a comparable uncontrolled transaction.
- (2) The following steps shall apply in determining the arm's length result under the cost plus method -
 - (a) determine the costs incurred by the person in a controlled transaction; then
 - (b) to this amount is added a mark up (referred to as the "cost plus mark up") to make an appropriate profit in light of the functions performed and market conditions; and
 - (c) the resulting amount is the arm's length result.
- (3) The cost plus mark up of a person in a controlled transaction may be determined by reference to -
 - (a) the cost plus mark up that the person earns in a comparable uncontrolled transaction; or
 - (b) the cost plus mark up that an independent person earns in comparable uncontrolled transaction.

12. Profit split method

- (1) The profit split method may be applied if transactions are so interrelated that the arm's length result cannot be determined on a separate basis.
- (2) The profit split method determines the arm's length result on the basis that the associates form a partnership and agree to divide profits in the manner that independent persons would have agreed on the basis that they are dealing with each other at arm's length.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may determine the division of profits on the basis of a contribution analysis, a residual analysis, or on any other basis as appropriate having regard to all the facts and circumstances.
- (4) Under contribution analysis, the total profits from controlled transactions shall be divided on the basis of the relative value of the functions performed by each person participating in the controlled transactions.

- (5) Under residual analysis, the total profits from controlled transactions shall be divided as follows –
 - (a) each person is allocated sufficient profit to provide the person with a basic return appropriate for the type of transactions in which the person is engaged; and
 - (b) any residual profit remaining after the allocation in paragraph (a) is allocated on the basis of division between independent persons determined having regard to all the facts and circumstances.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-regulation (5)(a), the basic return is determined by reference to market returns achieved for similar types of transactions by independent persons.

13. Returns

- (1) For the purposes of the Act a return under section 74 shall in accordance with Form 1 in the Schedule and a return under section 75 shall be in accordance with Form 2 in the Schedule.
- (2) A return required to be given under sub-regulation 14 (1) shall be given in the manner prescribed in regulations 23 to 25 of the Revenue Services Administration Regulations 2003.

14. Amount of tax to be withheld from employment income

- (1) An employer required to withhold tax from a payment of employment income to an employee under section 76 of the Act shall withhold tax in accordance with this regulation.
- (2) Subject to sub-regulation (5), if an employee has furnished the employer with an employee declaration, the amount of tax to be withheld by the employer from a payment of employment income to the employee for a payment period (referred to in this section as the "current payment period") shall be computed according to the following formula –

where –

- A is the amount of tax payable computed by applying the rates approved by Order in Council to the annualised employment income of the employee computed in accordance with sub-regulation (3);
- B is the amount of tax withheld from payments made to the employee in the previous payment periods in the fiscal year; and

19. Refunds

- (1) For the purposes of section 92 (2) of the Act a refund shall be applied for in Form 9 in the Schedule.
- (2) A form required to be given under sub-regulation (1) shall be given in the manner prescribed in regulations 23 to 25 of the Revenue Services Administration Regulations 2003.

20. Forms

The Chief Commissioner may specify and publish in a newspaper widely distributed within the Kingdom a form for the purposes of any application, notice, or other document to be lodged under the Act or these regulations.

Made in Nuku‘alofa this 16 day of January, 2008.

Chief Commissioner of Revenues.

- (7) Notwithstanding sub-regulation (6), the Chief Commissioner may apply the lowest marginal tax rate on application in writing from an employee whose total employment income for the year is less than the highest marginal threshold.

15. Employee declaration

- (1) Subject to sub-regulation (2), an employee may furnish an employee declaration to his employer.
- (2) An employee shall not furnish an employee declaration to an employer while another employee declaration is in force, except as provided in sub-regulation (4)(a).
- (3) An employee declaration shall be in Form 3 specified in the Schedule and signed by the employee.
- (4) An employee declaration furnished under this regulation to an employer has effect from the start of the first payment period after it has been furnished and shall remain in force until –
 - (a) the employee furnishes the employer with a new employee declaration;
 - (b) the employee, by notice in writing to the employer, withdraws the declaration;
 - (c) the employee leaves the employment of the employer; or
 - (d) the Chief Commissioner determines by notice in a newspaper widely published in the Kingdom, or by notice in writing to the employer, that the declaration ceases to have effect.
- (5) An employee shall furnish a new employee declaration if any of the circumstances relevant to the determination of the amount of tax to be withheld under regulation 14 change.
- (6) A new employee declaration shall be furnished within seven days of the change occurring.
- (7) An employer shall –
 - (a) furnish to the Chief Commissioner the original employee declaration; and
 - (b) maintain and keep a copy of the employee declaration for 5 years.
- (8) An employee who furnishes an employee declaration to an employer contrary to this regulation commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

16. Tax withholding certificate

- (1) In this regulation -

“employee” means a person receiving an amount from which tax has been withheld under Division IV of Part IX of the Act; and “employer” means a person required to withhold tax under Division 4 of Part 8 of the Act from a payment made.

(2) A tax withholding certificate required under section 85 (1) of the Act to be given by an employer to an employee for withholding from employment income shall be in Form 4 in the Schedule and for withholding from other income to be given by a payer to a resident payee shall be in Form 5 in the Schedule and for a non-resident payee shall be in Form 6.

(3) An employer shall furnish a tax withholding certificate to each employee for the fiscal year within fourteen days after the end of the year, and the employer shall retain a copy of the tax withholding certificate for a period of 5 years.

(4) If an employee leaves the employer’s employment during a fiscal year, the employer shall furnish to the employee within seven days after the employee ceased employment a tax withholding certificate covering the part of the year prior to ceasing employment by the last day of the employee’s employment.

(5) An employee furnished with a tax withholding certificate under sub-regulation (4) shall furnish the certificate to his new employer within seven days of commencing employment.

(6) An employer who has been furnished with a certificate under sub-regulation (5) shall take the amounts set out in the certificate into account in applying regulation 14 to the employment income paid to the employee for the fiscal year to which the certificate relates.

(7) A payer withholding tax under section 77, 78, or 79 of the Act shall furnish a tax withholding certificate to the recipient of the income within twenty eight days after the end of the month in which the person was required to withhold the tax.

(8) A tax withholding certificate shall be furnished to the employee or payee –

(a) by personal delivery to the employee or payee; or

(b) by posting it by prepaid letter addressed to the employee’s or payee’s last known postal address.

(9) If a tax withholding certificate posted in accordance with sub-regulation (8)(b) is returned to the employer or payer undelivered, the employer or payer shall forward the certificate to the Chief Commissioner within seven days after the date of return of the certificate.

(10) A employee or payee whose tax withholding certificate has been lost, stolen, or destroyed may apply, in writing, to the employer or payer for a duplicate certificate.

(11) If an application has been made under sub-regulation (10), the employer or payer shall comply with the application within seven days and the certificate furnished shall be clearly marked “duplicate”.

(12) If a employee or payee dies during the fiscal year, the trustee of the employee’s or payee’s estate may apply, in writing, to a employer or payer for a tax withholding certificate for that part of the year prior to the death of the employee or payee.

(13) A employee or payee who intends to cease being a resident individual in a fiscal year may apply, in writing, to a employer or payer for a tax withholding certificate for that part of the year prior to the employee or payee ceasing to be a resident individual.

(14) If an application has been made under sub-regulation (12) or (13), the employer or payer shall furnish the trustee or employee or payee with the certificate within seven days of the application being made.

(15) A employer or payer who ceases to carry on business shall issue a tax withholding certificate to each employee or payee prior to ceasing business.

(16) A employer or payer who fails to provide a tax withholding certificate as required under this regulation commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

17. Monthly withholding tax statements

A person withholding tax is required to lodge with the Chief Commissioner a statement of tax withheld from employment, interest and land rent income under section 86 (3). The statement and payment shall be lodged with the Chief Commissioner within 28 days after the end of the month in which the payment has been made and shall be in Form 7 in the Schedule.

18. Annual withholding tax statements

An annual withholding tax statement required to be lodged with the Chief Commissioner under section 86 (2) of the Act shall be in Form 8 in the Schedule.

NOTES: Under sections 7 and 73 of the Income Tax Act 2007 a return from the master operating a ship belonging to a non-resident person is required to be lodged with the Chief Commissioner before the departure of the ship from a port in Tonga unless an arrangement is in place with the Chief Commissioner. Tax is imposed at the rate of 3% of the gross amount derived from the carriage of passengers, livestock, mail, merchandise or goods embarked in Tonga. This is the final liability of the non-resident owner or operator of the ship. The Chief Commissioner will determine the amount of income tax due and notify the master of the ship, in writing, of the amount due. The master is liable for the amount due and the Commissioner of Revenue will not grant a port clearance until the amount due has been paid or satisfactory arrangements for payment have been made.

NOTES: Under sections 7 and 74 of the Income Tax Act 2007 a non-resident aircraft person is required to lodge a monthly return with, and pay any tax payable to, the Chief Commissioner within 28 days after the end of the month. Tax is imposed at the rate of 3% of the gross amount derived from the carriage of passengers, livestock, mail, merchandise or goods embarked in Tonga. This is the final liability of the non- resident owner or operator of the aircraft. The Chief Commissioner is treated as having served notice of the assessment on the non-resident at the time the return is lodged.

(Regulation 14/Tu'utu'uni 14)

NOTES: Under sections 7 and 73 of the Income Tax Act 2007 a return from the master operating a ship belonging to a non-resident person is required to be lodged with the Chief Commissioner before the departure of the ship from a port in Tonga unless an arrangement is in place with the Chief Commissioner. Tax is imposed at the rate of 3% of the gross amount derived from the carriage of passengers, livestock, mail, merchandise or goods embarked in Tonga. This is the final liability of the non- resident owner or operator of the ship. The Chief Commissioner will determine the amount of income tax due and notify the master of the ship, in writing, of the amount due. The master is liable for the amount due and the Commissioner of Revenue will not grant a port clearance until the amount due has been paid or satisfactory arrangements for payment have been made.
