DECISION

1. This court listed this matter, for trial on 23 September 2014.
2. The Original claimant made an application to withdraw this matter on the following grounds:
 - i. This Court is too slow in hearing this disputes;
 - ii. As times passed by, more claimants are joining the dispute;
 - iii. This court does not know the custom of the area well enough to be able to deal with this matter;
 - iv. The parties are confused with the procedures;
 - v. The new Customary Land management Act would better suit this kinds of cases;
3. In response the first counterclaimant withdrew his case on the ground that it was registered on a mistaken on their part over the boundary
4. The Second Counterclaimant objects to the withdrawal and wishes this matter be deal with expediently and impartially within this court;
5. The court made further research within the Island Court and found out that the same land was registered more than once. File LC 9 of 1989 filed by Andrew

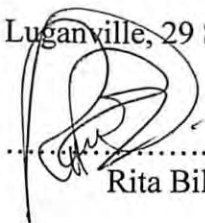

NATAWA LAND CASE.

Johnny included this land dispute. This matter is listed for hearing on 3 August 2014 at 8.30 am at Luganville, Court House.

6. A withdrawal order would no prejudice the third counterclaimant who has already registered his claim with LC 9 of 1989;
7. Court orders:
 - a. Counterclaimant is struck out from the parties in case 3 of 1988 without cost;
 - b. File 3 of 1988 is withdrawn from the list of causes before the Santo/Malo Island Court;
 - c. Cost in the cause.
